Scene Of Air Tragedy

Canada's third-worst air crash took the lives of 23 persons on this lonely hilltop on Cape Tormont, only 15 miles' flying from Quebec City. Three top executives of the Kennecott Copper Company of the United States, two babies in arms and a number of women and children returning from their vacation were among the crash victims. The plane was en route from Montreal to Baie Comeau, Que.—(CP Photo)

Pay For School Trustees Proposed At Convention

QUALICUM BEACH (CP)—Salaries for school trustees are likely to be the most controversial subject for discussion before the annual convention of the British Columbia School Trustees' Association, which opened here today.

The Fraser Valley branch of the association sent in a proposal for optional payment of $350 annually to trustees, arguing that other public officials receive an honorarium. The work of trustees has expanded so much they too should have recompense, says the resolution.

The opposition view is that school work is undertaken for the love of it, rather than for recompense, and that if an honorarium is to be paid, $350 is not adequate for the time and work involved.

Most of the resolutions before the convention are technical or deal with administration problems.

The convention opened at 9 a.m. with welcoming addresses by H. J. Welch, M.L.A., and village chairman G. Kincaid.

Chief speakers include Dr. Roy Daniels, U.B.C. department of English head; Dr. Norman MacKenzie, U.B.C. president, and W. R. Bone, Victoria, regional director, family allowances branch.

Soviet Paper's Charge Against Canada Baseless, Says Ottawa

MOSCOW (CP)—The News-paper Red Star says today that Canada is engaging in "an armaments race."

The Soviet armed forces newspaper says:

"The Canadian war industry did not cease its activity at the end of the war."

Red Star listed the series of large plants in Canada which it said are producing armaments: A light arms factory; an ammunition factory; an optical factory for producing instruments for armaments; an artillery armaments factory; an explosives factory; another artillery factory which is about to be put into operation; three airplane factories, all of which are producing jet planes, and shipyards working on warships.

It did not name the plants or give their locations.

In Ottawa, defence department officials denied Canada is in an armaments race and said the Red Star story was "grossly inaccurate and distorted."

One official said the paper was "implying that a number of completely innocent factories, producing things like dynamite for the mining industry or shotgun shells, are producing munitions of war."

For example, the official said, Red Star's statement that three Canadian factories are producing jet aircraft is incorrect.

Actually, A. V. Roe of Canada Ltd. had produced one jet airplane, designed for "commercial work." Canadair Ltd. of Montreal was scheduled to go into production of North American F-86 jet fighters. But at the present time no Canadian factories were producing jet aircraft on an assembly-line basis.

NO NEW MAJOR WARSHIPS

Contracts had been let, however for the biggest peacetime naval construction program in Canadian history. Shipyards were working on three anti-submarine escort vessels, four coastal minesweepers and a trawler-type gate vessel. But no major naval units were under construction.

Since the war, some military optical instruments had been manufactured and a small number of army rifles were being built.

Big Hashish Seizure

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (Reuter)—Said Ahmed Marey, 55, regarded by police as the most dangerous narcotic drug trafficker in the Middle East, has been arrested. At the same time police seized 950 ounces of hashish valued at $1,200,000.

New Business Plan For Schools In B.C.

QUALICUM BEACH (CP)—Organization of branches throughout the province will be undertaken this year by the British Columbia Association of School Business Officials.

Objective is to provide school administrators with district and provincial sources of information and advice, and to knit together an active province-wide organization to deal with school problems on the administration level. Members of the executive are charged with organizing their own areas and where a district is not represented directly a local official will be enlisted.

The association, in annual session preceding the British Columbia School Trustees' Association convention, elected A. H. Durkin of Burnaby president. He succeeds Ian Chapple of New Westminster.

A. H. Lewis, Coquitlam, is vice-president and W. E. Childow, Chilliwack, secretary-treasurer. Directors are: W. Gibbs, Richmond; Mrs. K. N. Sparks, Saanich; D. Gracey, Prince George; P. T. Samson, Oliver, and A. H. Mercer, Langley.

Another Soviet 'First'

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda claimed at the week-end the Russians invented the tank one and a half years before that fighting machine first appeared in Britain. Not only that, said Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, Russian designers now have created tanks which have no equal in the world. The articles were published as the Soviet Union celebrated "tank day."

Bogus $10 Turns Up At Calgary Store

CALGARY (BUP)—A ten-dollar bill, described as "a very poor counterfeit," was held by police here.

Police officials turned the bill over to Bank of Canada officials for examination today. The bill is the first counterfeit to be found in Calgary following the recent flood of phoney money in Vancouver and eastern Canada.

The bill was given to a Calgary grocery clerk, Leo Feldman, by Harold E. Arens Saturday, police said. The police added that according to Arens, he had received the bill in change when he broke a $20 note. He could not remember where the exchange was made, he said.

Many-Sided Attack On Britain's Crisis

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain, the United States and Canada today were reported to have agreed on plans for a many-sided attack on Britain's dollar crisis. An announcement "of specific steps was promised soon."

Officials familiar with the work of the three-power conference here said these steps will include:

1. Greater freedom for Britain in spending Marshall Plan dollars for Canadian wheat.

2. Acceptance by the United States of Britain's plan to discriminate against American goods in order to conserve dollars.

In addition to these and other trade measures Britain is reported turning to the International Monetary Fund for loans which could total $312,000,000 in the next 12 months.

Finance and foreign ministers of the three countries were called to meet today and Treasury Secretary John Snyder of the United States predicted their work would shortly be completed.

One agreement, a decision to promote more overseas loans by the World Bank and the United States Export-Import Bank, was announced Saturday.

MORE CONSULTATION

The others are expected to include creation of one or more three-power committees to provide continuous consultation on Britain's dollar problem and to seek long-range solutions, mainly along the line of selling more goods in the United States.

Completion of the dollar conference will clear the way for a new round of high-powered financial and diplomatic talks scheduled to be held here tomorrow.

Miss America Represents Nation's Petite Brunettes

By JAMES P. HACKETT

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Petite Jacqueline Mercer of Phoenix, Ariz., the new Miss America, says she is proud to represent the beauty of short women.

"Half the women in the United States are short and it's about time they were recognized," the 18-year-old brunette said in an interview.

The ranch girl, five feet 3½ inches tall, was chosen Miss America Saturday night from among 52 girls representing 45 states, Canada and Puerto Rico.

Miss Mercer is the shortest girl selected as a beauty queen since Margaret Gorman won the first title in 1921. Miss Gorman was five feet, one inch tall.

The new Miss America also is the lightest ever chosen. She weighs 108 pounds, two pounds lighter than Miss Gorman.

At the interview, Miss Mercer gave this information:

She is an only child. Her father, Arthur L. Mercer, is principal at a Phoenix grammar school. Her mother also teaches, but was not employed during the last year.

The family lives on the X-Bar-X Ranch between Phoenix and Litchfield, Ariz. The Mercers raise cotton on 60 acres. They also have show poultry, five dogs and a lamb.

Miss Mercer neither drinks nor smokes. Her high school sweetheart, Douglas Cook, 20, interested her in dramatics five years ago. He turned from dramatics to art and "we go out in the desert together where he sketches and tries to teach me art."

To see a play on the west coast, she drove a tractor for a month, sowing 50 acres for her father.

Italian Atlantic Fliers Forced To Alight In Azores

LISBON (UP)—Two Italian airmen attempting to fly a single-engine plane westward across the Atlantic have been forced down in the Azores by a plugged gasoline line, the Lisbon airport said today.

The two fliers are John Bronello, 36, a soldier of fortune who fought for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek against the Japanese, and his co-pilot, Capt. Camillo Baroglio of the Italian air force.

The two took off from Lisbon at 7:18 p.m. Sunday on a 34-hour nonstop flight to New York. It was to be the first hop of a barnstorming tour to raise $3,000,000 for an Italian boys' town near Turin, Italy.

The airport control tower said a message was received saying their plane, the Santa Susanna, had landed at Lages in the Azores at 6:50 a.m. G.M.T. because of a defective gasoline line.

Their light plane, a stock U.S. model, has been revamped to carry 262 gallons of gasoline for the Atlantic crossing.

Narrowly Missed Fatal Plane Flight

QUEBEC CITY (BUP)—Jean Thomassin, president of the French Committee of World Aid to Children, traveled on the last ill-fated flight of the Quebec Airways plane which crashed Friday near St. Joachim, Que.

Thomassin, who chatted with the passengers shortly before their death, felt grateful today he had not been a 24th victim. He boarded the DC-3 passenger plane in Montreal Friday morning, but decided to get off at Quebec City.

Less than an hour after he made his decision, his erstwhile traveling companions had been

Campaign Speech

MANILA (AP)—President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines warned today a third world war "may come three or four years from now." He was making a campaign speech for re-election.

Mainland Locals Of I.W.A. Accept

First reaction of International Woodworkers of America (I.W.A.) Local 1-217 at New Westminster voted overwhelmingly to accept the proposal and Mission Local 1-387 gave the proposal unanimous support. The New Westminster Local has the largest membership in the province.

Victoria Local 1-118 is scheduled to meet tonight to consider the settlement formula. Union officers have predicted that the Victoria woodworkers will accept the settlement provisions.

The settlement proposals, worked out at the 11th hour Thursday after more than four months of negotiations and while preparations were being made for a government-supervised strike vote provide for maintenance of the 1948-49 wage-scale concessions toward union security and reduction of board rates, generally at $2.50 a day, to $2.25.

Extensive Damage To Cars In Crash

About $650 damage was done to two cars when they collided at 3:20 Sunday afternoon at Fort and Quadra Streets, city police reported. There were 10 occupants of the cars, but the only injured were two children, their hurts of a minor nature.

Police said the collision was between two cars driven by Aubrey T. Brown, Hut 1138 Golf Hill, Work Point Barracks, and Harris G. Paterson, 3967 Blenkinsop Road. The impact turned the Paterson car over on its side.

At Jubilee Hospital, five-year-old Robert Paterson was found to be suffering from shock and 19-month-old Lynn Paterson was treated for cuts. Police estimated damage to the Paterson car would total $400, about $250 to the Brown vehicle.

Police said that Brown would be summoned for careless driving.

Atomic Conference At Chalk River, Ont.

OTTAWA (CP)—Atomic scientists of Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States will meet this month to decide if any additional atomic information can be taken off the secret list, government officials said today.

The meeting will be held at Canada's atomic research centre at Chalk River, 90 miles northwest of Ottawa.

The committee is a continuing group set up to study the declassification guide established by the three countries in 1946 for control of atomic energy information. It has held previous meetings in the U.S. and Great Britain.

Explosion Aboard Believed To Have Catapulted Bodies

SAULT AU COCHON, Que. (CP)—Search for the body of a missing victim of the ill-fated Canadian Pacific Airlines DC-3 which crashed on a mountain here last Friday spread today 80 miles away to the St. Lawrence River-side town of Donnacona, Que., where the body of an unidentified man was landed by a little river vessel.

The scantily-clad body of a man in his 30s was picked up Sunday afternoon a short distance off-shore from Sault au Cochon and delivered to Donnacona, Que., by the river craft Emmanuel.

Provincial Police were asked to investigate the possibility the body might be that of Henri Paul Bouchard of Baie Comeau. The bodies of his wife and young baby are among 22 recovered from wreckage of the plane in which 23 persons including four crew members, died.

(Relatives of Bouchard have been summoned to Donnacona, Que., 80 miles from the scene of the crash to examine the body in attempt at positive identification.)

Bodies Taken To Quebec Homes

Meanwhile, the 22 bodies recovered from the wreck and brought to Quebec City by special train were due to be taken to their homes from Quebec.

Coroner Paul V. Marceau ordered the bodies of four crew members be held for autopsy. An inquest into the crash was tentatively set for Tuesday.

All the crash victims except Bouchard were identified late Sunday.

One victim, Flight Engineer Emile Therrien of Montreal, was

When word of discovery of the body by the river boat was known, search parties were already scouring Cap Tourmente beyond the immediate area of the plane wreckage on a thickly wooded slope.

Widening of the search was based on a theory that there was an explosion aboard the airliner as it flew along the St. Lawrence shoreline before swinging in and falling about 250 feet from the top of the steep cape.

Meanwhile a board of C.P.A. officials presided over by Grant MacDonachie of Vancouver, the airline's president, began a private study of the evidence gathered Saturday when the body removal operations started.

Regarded as important evidence was a box which flew out of the plane while it was in flight and which was picked up by Patrick Simard, a young fisherman.

Industrial Housing Plan May Solve Great Problem

OTTAWA (BUP)—Top government housing officials today eagerly scrutinized the formula of a local bakery firm for solving the housing shortage and decided it could be applied on a national scale within two years.

Maj.-Gen. H. A. Young, vice-president of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, said the plan would link the Dominion's housing problem within two years if private industry practiced it.

He described the scheme instituted here by the Morrison-Lamotte bakery firm as "an excellent idea and a marked step forward" toward solving the capital's home dearth.

"If industry throughout Canada adopted the scheme, it would go far towards solving the housing problem," he said. "Our housing shortage could be solved within a year or two if private enterprise across the country introduced similar programs."

"This is the first time an industrial company has taken the lead in providing housing for employees," Young added.

COMPANY CONTRACTOR

In an interview, G. C. Morrison, president of the firm, outlined his company's "homes for workers" plan:

"Cost of the homes will be 25 to 30 per cent lower than if built privately because the company acts as general contractors, offering its services in supervising the building, placing sub-contracts, eliminating the charges of a general contractor and making substantial savings possible through mass buying of materials."

2. It eliminates high down payments and brings monthly rentals in line with employees' wages and salaries. The down payment is 10 per cent of the total cost, which is about $8,000, while the monthly rates are about $40.

Toronto Suspect Thought Man Wanted In Vancouver

TORONTO (CP)—Lou Ward, 27, free-spending former dancing instructor, faces six charges of jewelry theft and police are looking into the possibility that he may be the smooth-talking man who charmed Vancouver social circles to pave the way for large-scale robberies.

Ward, also known to police as Louis Molner, was arrested Sunday in a downtown hotel here on a charge of carrying a German automatic pistol. An exchange of telegrams between Toronto and Vancouver police led to additional charges, including one accusing Ward of a $30,000 Vancouver robbery.

Described by police as a one-time tutor at a dancing school in Brantford, Ont., the dark-haired even-featured Ward is said to have arrived here three weeks ago by plane. Police say that since then he has drawn on a big bankroll for a happy holiday splurge through home-town bright spots.

Police said investigation indicated that Ward lived for some time in Brantford before moving to the Pacific coast.

Meanwhile, police in Vancouver continued their inquiries into the series of west coast gem thefts. They arrested Donald McGrath, 26, on a charge of stealing $30,000 worth of jewels Aug. 26 from the Fraser Valley ranch home of E. S. Glaspie, wealthy Vancouver lumberman. McGrath is to appear in court Sept. 17.

Iron Curtain Revolt Shows Signs Of Spread

Frost In Alberta Hits Crop

EDMONTON (CP)—An early killing frost struck Alberta during the week-end, ending the growing season and damaging thousands of acres of uncut crops in central Alberta.

Forty per cent of the crop in the central area is uncut, and field crops commissioner A. M. Wilson said today there would be "plenty of damage." Grade would be affected and germination quality of oats especially would be impaired.

Lowest temperature was at Whitecourt, 90 miles northwest of Edmonton, which recorded 12 above Friday night. All reporting stations were below freezing. Other readings included: Vermilion 14, Penhold 16, Coronation 18, Edmonton 23, Calgary 24.

Nearly two inches of snow fell in the Calgary area Saturday, delaying harvest operations. Most of the crop in the south is cut, and will not be affected by the frost, Mr. Wilson said.

Weather officials said such a heavy frost is unusual so early in September. It usually comes about Sept. 21. However, similar temperatures had been recorded 12 times in the last 60 years.

MONTANANS SHIVER

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—Snow continued falling in Montana today as the first sign of winter spread its white blanket and freezing temperatures into Wyoming and the Dakotas.

The Alaskan storm put its finger on Montana late Saturday, spreading more than a foot of snow over some areas and dropping temperatures to as low as 20 degrees above zero today.

It will warm up rapidly as the storm moves southward, the U.S. weather bureau in Helena reported.

Two New Justices May Change Policy Of Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (UP)—The swift remodeling of the Supreme Court, precipitated by the death of two justices, was seen today as heralding the opening of a new chapter in the tribunal's history.

Informed observers predicted the court that assembles for a new term next month, with four Truman-appointed justices, will play a less spectacular role in national affairs than did either the conservative "Nine Old Men" or the precedent-junking New Deal court.

The revamped tribunal is expected to follow closely the decision pattern staked out by the New Deal court. But it is believed less likely to break new legal ground.

The death of Justice Wiley B. Rutledge in York, Me., Saturday night gave President Truman his second opportunity in two months to make an appointment to the high bench. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath figured prominently in the speculation.

It was reported the President promised him the next vacancy on the Supreme Court at the time he resigned as Senator from Rhode Island.

Pay For School Trustees Proposed At Convention

QUALICUM BEACH (CP)—Salaries for school trustees are likely to be the most controversial subject for discussion before the annual convention of the British Columbia School Trustees' Association, which opened here today.

Huess Elected First President W. Germany

BONN (AP)—Professor Theodor Heuss, whose books were burned by Hitler, tonight was elected first President of the new West-German Republic.

The 65-year-old educationist, candidate of the three-party Rightist government coalition of the new state, received 416 of 800 votes cast on the second ballot, better than a clear majority.

Dr. Kurt Schumacher, chairman of the Socialist Party of the left, was second with 312 votes. The first ballot had ended in a deadlock.

Of 801 valid votes, from a possible total of 804 on the first ballot, Prof. Heuss, candidate of the Rightist Government Coalition, received 377; Dr. Kurt Schumacher, candidate of the Socialist Left, 311; and Dr. Rudolph Amelunxen, surprise candidate of the Christians, 28. There were 76 abstentions. The other votes were scattered among four write-in candidates.

Because no man had received a majority, a second ballot was ordered immediately.

To Resume Flight

LISBON (UP)—John Brondello, who was forced down early today in the Azores on his attempted non-stop flight from Lisbon to New York, said tonight he would try again.

Brondello sent word to friends here that he would return to Portugal as soon as he and his co-pilot, Camillo Barigoglio, had supervised repairs of the carburetor and fuel line of their single engine plane.

A plugged gasoline line forced the Italian airmen to land in the Azores, according to reports from Lages.

Commends B.E.S.L.

OTTAWA (CP)—Veterans Affairs Minister Gregg today commended members of the British Empire Service League for taking a major part in helping to stop the spread of communism in countries of the Commonwealth.

He addressed delegates from 25 Commonwealth countries and the United States at the opening business session of the B.E.S.L. 10th biennial conference.

Eggs May Soar To 90 Cents

TORONTO (CP)—The retail price of grade A large eggs is expected to soar to 90 cents a dozen, the highest price since the First World War, it was reported here today. Prices on the wholesale market today were up four cents from Saturday and six cents over a four-day period.

Wholesale to retail price of A large eggs was 71-75 cents today and retail to consumer price was 78-84 cents.

The Dominion Department of Agriculture here reported the increase was due to light receipts and prices are not expected to drop until the supply improves. One poultry dealer believed the small number of grade A eggs on the market was caused by farmers selling their old hens, the layers of grade A eggs, to make room for pullets in the cold weather.

Body In River Proved Not From Plane Crash

DONNACONA, Que. (CP)—Relatives who today examined the body of a man found in the St. Lawrence River near the scene of Friday's plane disaster at Sault au Cochon decided it was not that of Henri Paul Bouchard, missing 23rd victim of the crash.

Meanwhile, the 22 bodies recovered from the wreck and brought to Quebec City by special train were due to be taken to their homes from Quebec. Coroner Paul V. Marceau ordered the bodies of four crew members be held for autopsy. An inquest into the crash was tentatively set for Tuesday.

Another Archbishop In Czechoslovakia Under Police Guard

PRAGUE (UP)—Czech secret police have clamped a tight "security guard" around the residence of Archbishop Josef Matocha, the country's second-ranking Roman Catholic prelate, church sources disclosed today.

These sources said police had explained the guard was "for Matocha's own safety" and that the archbishop was not permitted to travel without a police escort.

Archbishop Josef Beran, the chief clerical foe of the Communist government, has been a semi-prisoner in his palace for some time.

The disclosure that Archbishop Matocha also had become a semi-prisoner of the government coincided with reports reaching here that Catholic priests in various sections of the country delivered blistering attacks against the Communist regime from their pulpits Sunday.

The church sources said two members of the Czech secret police and a special doorman had guarded Archbishop Matocha's grey stone palace in Olomouc, Moravia, since last week.

A police "bodyguard" was assigned to the archbishop to accompany him wherever he goes, the sources said.

ISTANBUL (AP)—A bomb exploded at the Turkish consulate in Plovdiv, Bulgaria, last Friday, the semi-official news agency Anatolia reported today. There were no deaths, the report said.

Tito Flings New Defiance At Russians

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

BELGRADE (AP)—Marshal Tito flung new defiance into the teeth of the Russian bear today. Yugoslavia, he declared, "steeled by tremendous experiences" in the Second World War, is ready to overcome any present troubles as it did its past ones.

The Yugoslav Premier, prime target of Moscow and the Cominform attacks, which began 16 months ago, Saturday's revelation that Hungary had lashed eight top party men for trying to overthrow the Kremlin-controlled government was taken here as the latest evidence that important persons in the satellite countries would like to follow Yugoslavia's example.

Along with other incidents, it is considered to show widespread resentment in Eastern Europe over Russia's economic exploitation of the small "People's democracies."

Observers recalled the trial and execution of Albania's Koci Xoxe, the removal of Greece's rebel leader, Gen. Markos Vafiades, Bulgaria's ousting of Traicho Kostov from his party post and the development of an independent anti-Moscow Communist Party in Germany.

PROMISE OF HELP

Tito's promise in August—"we will help the Bulgarians to remove those individuals who have raised obstacles to creation and preservation of brotherly relations"—now is believed to have a deeper meaning.

Diplomatic observers in Belgrade see in it a promise, not only to the Bulgarians, but to the rest of Eastern Europe, to help all those who oppose subversion to Moscow.

Nazi Chief Justice Buch Takes Own Life

MUNICH (AP)—The Chief Justice of the Nazi Party Supreme Court, Reichsleiter Walter Buch, committed suicide by slashing his wrists and jumping into Ammer Lake, Bavarian state police announced today. The body was dragged from the lake last Friday evening.

Police said they did not know the exact date on which Buch killed himself.

Buch was adjudged a major offender in two denazification trials. At the second trial last July, however, the Munich Appellate court reduced his forced-labor sentence from five years to the time he had already been under arrest—3½ years.

Food Costs Going Down In Washington

SEATTLE (CP)—Good news for housewives—the average grocery and meat bill will drop 10 per cent within six months. Paul Luvera, of Anacortes made the forecast Sunday night when he addressed delegates to the Washington Retail Grocers' and Meat Dealers' Association convention.

Luvera, past president of the association, said the trend in food prices is downward, "all the way from the manufacturer or producer to the consumer."

The committee is a continuing group set up to study the declassification guide established by the three countries in 1946 for control of atomic energy information. It has held previous meetings in the U.S. and Great Britain.

2 Senate Committees Adopt Arms Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Senate committees today jointly stamped formal approval on a $1,314,010,000 plan for rearming friendly nations against Communism. The final vote—20 to 3—cleared the way for the arms bill to go to the Senate. There it faces another fight by a group determined to make a deep cut in the total spending. The vote today was by the Senate foreign relations committee and the armed services committee.

One Woman's Day

By NANCY HODGES

SALES AND QUEUES

IN THE COURSE of my morning shopping recently, I went into a downtown store at a time when a sale of something or other was on. I didn't happen to want the particular "special," but I smiled at the apparent eagerness of the milling throng which did.

Stout parties pushed and shoved and grabbed, while the leaner kind wriggled in and managed to get to the counter with surprising ease.

In the hunt for sizes, women glared at some bither more fortunate body who had just what THEY wanted, and one or two tussled for one of the articles. Returning that way half an hour later, I saw a salesgirl wearily trying to restore order to a counter that looked as if a hurricane had struck it.

BID FOR BARGAINS

BARGAIN-HUNTING is a mania with some people; with others it is a sheer necessity. And a letter which I received the other day from an Englishwoman who visited Victoria this summer convinced me that the hunt for bargains over there is really something born of dire necessity.

She arrived home in time for the last of the summer sales at one of the big London department stores. Such sales provide much excitement for those brave women strong enough to be in the front rank on the first day of the sale, she writes.

"For the first time for years we could go to the sales without having to clutch precious clothing books and feverishly count coupons," her letter went on.

ALL-NIGHT WAIT

HOURS BEFORE store opening time there were long queues of determined-looking women on the scent of bargains. "One woman who had travelled down from the Midlands waited all night—one can only hope her patience was rewarded and she got the dress of her dreams!"

"It was definitely a case of the early bird getting the bargains and, after the first brief rush, there was nothing particularly startling on sale. With less money to spend and everything so expensive, most people have had to take a severely practical view. . . . Necessary purchases for the linen cupboard, warm garments for next winter, boots and shoes have had priority over more extravagant furbelows, much as one might long to 'splurge' after so much austerity," she writes.

HUSBANDS' VIGIL

SPEAKING of all-night vigils for bargains reminds me of a little item I noticed in an Old Country newspaper a few days ago. One of the most difficult—and expensive—things to get in Britain is furniture, and the blitzing of many homes and the increasing number of newlyweds have aggravated the situation.

So when a Chelmsford firm advertised a £65 suite of furniture marked down to £71.00, a young couple determined to get it, if humanly possible. They enlisted the help of another couple, and the two husbands queued all night for two nights, and the two women did the same for two days.

In all, they put in forty hours outside that furniture store entrance. And their patience, and endurance, was rewarded—as it deserved to be.

QUEUES AND SCHOOL

FOR TEN YEARS the people of Great Britain have been queuing up in long lines—for fish, for the cinema, for everything—so it is quite understandable that many youngsters have never known what it is to buy without waiting in line for hours, and have come to regard it as an inevitable part of life.

Which explains the story—vouched for as true—of the little girl, aged five, who on her second day at school promptly returned home.

When her mother wanted to know why she had come back so soon, she replied: "Why, Mummy, there were six queues—I knew I would never get in!"

Prescription For ECZEMA Found Effective

This prescription has been thoroughly tested and has shown remarkable results where there is an inflammatory, itching condition of the skin, redness, weeping, scaling, crusting, thickening or swelling. The prescription is a clear, colorless and odorless liquid and contains no oil or grease, and will not stain. Application is simple. Affected parts are washed with a pure soap and warm water, the prescription Ex-off Concentrated is then patted on with a small swab of cotton-wool night and morning.

Your druggist can supply you with this prescription. Simply ask for 3 ounces of Ex-off Concentrated and if your skin is tender, cracks, or gets dry, you should also obtain ½ ounce of Ex-off Ointment. Cut this out to remind you.

Women's Clothing Prices In Paris Declared Too High

By GLORIA YARBROUGH (For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dresses with built-in underwear are Marusia's latest enthusiasm.

"When bra and slip are part of the dress," says the movie clothes designer, "there is no problem of finding appropriate under-clothing to match the gown."

These are chiefly cocktail or dinner frocks, intended for dry-cleaning.

"Prices are much too high in Paris," she said. "Wives of many designers can't afford the creations of their husbands. Americans buy them."

TOO EXTREME

Designs, too, are much too extreme, in Marusia's opinion. "French women don't mind having yards of material billowing around them because they aren't figure-conscious like American women. Of course, fashions aren't created for young girls with nice figures. The matrons are the style leaders."

FUR NECKLACE TOPS

The fur necklace should rate tops among fads this season, says Mary Kay Dodson, Paramount designer. These, styled along choked lines, can be made of your favorite fur. Spats, too, will be prominent in new wardrobes, she predicts.

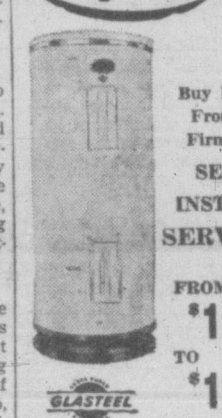

You don't need a pin-up figure to look well dressed, says Dorothy O'Hara. The former movie designer thinks any woman, fat or lean, can look smart if she takes advantage of a few tricks used in film studios.

"A common mistake is the use of the round waistline or belt," she says. "The round line cuts the figure in half, making the short woman look even shorter or plumper."

"The slim skirt," says Dorothy, "is the most flattering to the most women. A peplum over the hips gives the thin girl curves, hides the plump girl's pounage. An inverted pleat in the skirt allows a girl to walk normally without detracting from the slim waistline effect."

Suspect Wholesale Rustling In Alberta

CALGARY (BUF)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police officials in southern Alberta are investigating the possibility that a large rustling organization is operating in the province.

Last Saturday three men appeared in the Lethbridge police court on charges of cattle thieving. They were arrested last Friday in Red Deer. They were apprehended after they had allegedly attempted to dispose of nine head of stolen cattle at the Calgary stockyards.

According to R.C.M.P. officials in Calgary it is believed the ring has been active in the southern part of the province for several months. Also the Mounted Police officials said that other reports had been received of cattle disappearing from southern Alberta ranges.

Industrial Housing Plan May Solve Great Problem

OTTAWA (BUP)—Top government housing officials today eagerly scrutinized the formula of a local bakery firm for solving the housing shortage and decided it could be applied on a national scale within two years.

Maj.-Gen. H. A. Young, vice-president of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, said the plan would lick the Dominion's housing problem within two years if private industry practiced it.

He described the scheme instituted here by the Morrison-Lamotte bakery firm as "an excellent idea and a marked step forward" toward solving the capital's home dearth.

"If industry throughout Canada adopted the scheme, it would go far towards solving the housing problem," he said. "Our housing shortage could be solved within a year or two if private enterprise across the country introduced similar programs."

"This is the first time an industrial company has taken the lead in providing housing for employees," Young added.

COMPANY CONTRACTOR

In an interview, G. C. Morrison, president of the firm, outlined his company's "homes for workers" plan:

1. Cost of the homes will be 25 to 30 per cent lower than if built privately because the company acts as general contractor, offering its services in supervising the building, placing sub-contractors, eliminating the charges of a general contractor and making substantial savings possible through mass buying of materials.

2. It eliminates high down payments and brings monthly rentals in line with employees' wages and salaries. The down payment is 10 per cent of the total cost, which is about $8,000, while the monthly rates are about $40.

3. The homes are totally unlike "company houses" in that they will be owned by the workers whether they remain in the employ of the bakery or not.

BRICK VENEER

4. Each house, measuring 24.4

x30.0, will be of brick veneer, with a full basement and concrete foundation. There will be copper plumbing throughout, and each home will contain a living-room, dining-room, kitchen with breakfast nook, three bedrooms and a four-piece bathroom.

There will be hardwood floors upstairs and down, tiled bath, kitchen and vestibule, a pressure water system, two cold storage rooms in the basement, an oil furnace, kitchen cupboards, stove and refrigerator, and flagstone walks and a side drive.

Eight of the homes would be completed by the end of the year on a subdivision in suburban Gloucester, Morrison said. "This is not paternalism but a straight business proposition," Morrison said. "All we are trying to do is put our ability to buy at the disposal of our workers—to put at the disposal of our men the buying power and resources of the company so they may secure a home at the lowest possible price."

Sudbury Police Say Woman Slain; Man Questioned

SUDBURY (CP)—Police said today Mrs. Cecile Rainville of Sudbury was murdered in the bedroom of her two-room apartment this morning. Edward Latour, a bushworker, was held for questioning.

The young woman suffered stab wounds in the back, abdomen, arms and hands. Latour, bleeding from a knife wound on his hand, went to the police station about 8 o'clock and reported the stabbing.

Mrs. Kathleen Nechal, owner of the house where the stabbing occurred, said she heard Latour come into the house and go to the downstairs apartment after Mrs. Rainville's husband had gone to work.

She said she heard Mrs. Rainville shout and when she went downstairs, Latour closed the door to the bedroom and told her it was none of her business.

Mrs. Rainville's partly-clothed body was found lying in a pool of blood between the bed and the door of the bedroom. Her child, only a few months old, was sleeping in a crib beside the bed.

Edible nests, made by species of swifts in Malaya and Australia, are composed in part or whole of the birds' saliva.

Probe Gas Deaths Of Woman, Daughter

MONTREAL (CP)—A coroner's inquest was opened today tomorrow on the asphyxiation deaths of a 45-year-old widow and her 13-year-old daughter whose negligee-clad bodies were discovered in their second-story flat here Sunday.

Homicide squad detectives, investigating the possibility of a murder and suicide in connection with the finding, identified the victims as Mrs. Rita Laframboise and her daughter, Denise. The bodies were found in separate bedrooms about eight hours after the two had been asphyxiated by gas fumes.

Five gas stove jets had been left open. Police said the daughter apparently had been awakened by the strong smell of gas, but collapsed after crawling out of her bed.

Between 1:57 and 10:05 Sunday afternoon Saanich firemen put out three fires. They handled a grass fire near the Prairie Inn, Saanichton, and separate grass and bush fires on Tanner Road. Oak Bay firemen put out a grass fire at 971 Linkleas Road at 1:47 Sunday afternoon and a bush and grass fire in the Gonzales area shortly before noon.

Toronto Suspect Thought Man Wanted In Vancouver

TORONTO (CP)—Lou Ward, 27, free-spending former dancing instructor, faces six charges of jewelry theft and police are looking into the possibility that he may be the smooth-talking man who charmed Vancouver social circles to pave the way for large-scale robberies.

Ward, also known to police as Louis Molner, was arrested Sunday in a downtown hotel here on a charge of carrying a German automatic pistol. An exchange of telegrams between Toronto and Vancouver police led to additional charges, including one accusing Ward of a $30,000 Vancouver robbery.

Described by police as a one-time tutor at a dancing school in Brantford, Ont., the dark-haired even-featured Ward is said to have arrived here three weeks ago by plane. Police say that since then he has drawn on a big bankroll for a happy holiday splurge through home-town bright spots.

Police said investigation indicated that Ward lived for some time in Brantford before moving to the Pacific coast.

Meanwhile, police in Vancouver continued their inquiries into the series of west coast gem thefts. They arrested Donald McGrath, 26, on a charge of stealing $30,000 worth of jewels Aug. 26 from the Fraser Valley ranch home of E. S. Glaspie, wealthy Vancouver lumberman. McGrath is to appear in court Sept. 17.

Abbott Says Plan Ready To Fight Money Problem

WASHINGTON (CP)—Douglas Abbott, Canadian finance minister, said today that Britain, Canada and the United States have plans for an immediate attack on the British dollar problem.

"We have made very encouraging progress," he said of the three-power conference which started last Wednesday and is expected to end late today.

"We have determined what steps can be taken at this time and, above all, we have agreed on the direction in which we must all work," he said in a speech at a National Press Club luncheon.

"Each of our governments must constantly examine the adequacies of our policies in the light of the ultimate goal. We have made a good beginning. In the words of your President (Truman), we must keep everlastingly at it."

But he emphasized: "We must not expect that complete answers can be found in the course of a few days or that there can be any immediate relief from all our difficulties."

The dollar crisis has a "most profound significance" for Canada, Abbott said.

"As long as there is a worldwide dollar problem, Canada is bound to be adversely affected. These effects cannot be overcome by purely internal Canadian measures. A satisfactory solution can only be found in co-operative efforts between governments such as those in which we have been engaged during the past week."

General Synod Debates Economy

HALIFAX (CP)—Economy was the keynote of today's early session of the 17th General Synod of the Church of England in Canada.

Delegates discussed a motion put forward by Rev. L. A. C. Smith of Vernon, B.C., asking that the period between synods be lengthened from three to four years and that a reduction be made in the number of delegates. The motion was set over for further debate later today.

J. P. Bell of Hamilton supported the motion. He said the present synod would cost the church treasury about $30,000.

Soviet Paper's Charge Against Canada Baseless, Says Ottawa

MOSCOW (CP)—The News-paper Red Star says today that Canada is engaging in "an armaments race."

The Soviet armed forces newspaper says:

"The Canadian war industry did not cease its activity at the end of the war."

Red Star listed the series of large plants in Canada which it said are producing armaments:

A light arms factory; an ammunition factory; an optical factory for producing instruments for armaments; an artillery armaments factory; an explosives factory; another artillery factory which is about to be put into operation; three airplane factories, all of which are producing jet planes, and shipyards working on warships.

It did not name the plants or give their locations.

In Ottawa, defence department officials denied Canada is in an armaments race and said the Red Star story was "grossly inaccurate" and distorted.

One official said the paper was "implying that a number of completely innocent factories, producing things like dynamite for the mining industry or shot-gun shells, are producing munitions of war."

For example, the official said, Red Star's statement that three Canadian factories are producing jet aircraft is incorrect.

Actually, A. V. Roe of Canada Ltd. had produced one jet airliner, designed for commercial work. Canadianair Ltd. of Montreal was scheduled to go into production of North American F-86 jet fighters. But at the present time no Canadian factories were producing jet aircraft on an assembly-line basis.

NO NEW MAJOR WARSHIPS

Contracts had been let, however for the biggest peacetime naval construction program in Canadian history. Shipyards were working on three anti-submarine escort vessels, four coastal mine-sweepers and a trawler-type gate vessel. But no major naval units were under construction.

Since the war, some military optical instruments had been manufactured and a small number of army rifles were being built.

Campaign Speech

MANILA (AP)—President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines warned today a third world war "may come three or four years from now." He was making a campaign speech for re-election.

Knowledge Greatest Weapon Against Foe Of Democratic Way

JASPER, Alta. (CP)—A well-informed people is one of the greatest bulwarks against "forces which are antagonistic to our way of life," Prime Minister St. Laurent said in a message read today at opening of the 30th annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Association.

"To me the outstanding characteristic of a weekly newspaper is its proximity to those it serves," the message said. "It is therefore in an excellent position not only to champion community needs but also by an intelligent handling and dissemination of world, national, provincial and local news to keep its readers well-informed."

More than 350 publishers from all parts of Canada are attending the three-day meeting. Thursday, a special train will carry the delegates to Edmonton to visit the oil fields.

C. J. Albon of Springfield, N.S., in his annual report as president, said the association still is dealing with many of the problems which affected it many years ago. "Perhaps the chief value of the C.W.N.A. is not so much what we accomplish as what we prevent others in these trying days from doing to us," he said.

Heavy Penalty For Giving Youth Liquor

At a special session of Saanich court this morning, George James Cronk, 500 block Judith Avenue, pleaded guilty to a charge of supplying a 16-year-old boy with an intoxicant and was fined $300, or in default of payment three months in jail, by Magistrate H. C. Hall.

Miss America Represents Nation's Petite Brunettes

By JAMES P. HACKETT

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Petite Jacqueline Mercer of Phoenix, Ariz., the new Miss America, says she is proud to represent the beauty of short women.

"Half the women in the United States are short and it's about time they were recognized," the 18-year-old brunette said in an interview.

The ranch girl, five feet 3 3/4 inches tall, was chosen Miss America Saturday night from among 52 girls representing 45 states, Canada and Puerto Rico. Miss Mercer is the shortest girl selected as a beauty queen since Margaret Gorman won the first title in 1921. Miss Gorman was five feet, one inch tall.

The new Miss America also is the lightest ever chosen. She weighs 106 pounds, two pounds lighter than Miss Gorman.

At the interview, Miss Mercer gave this information: She is an only child. Her father, Arthur L. Mercer, is principal at a Phoenix grammar school. Her mother also teaches, but was not employed during the last year.

The family lives on the X-Bar-X Ranch between Phoenix and Litchfield, Ariz. The Mercers raise cotton on 60 acres. They also have show poultry, five dogs and a lamb.

Miss Mercer neither drinks nor smokes. Her high school sweetheart, Douglas Cook, 20, interest in her in dramatics five years ago. He turned from dramatics to art and "we go out in the desert together where he sketches and tries to teach me art."

To see a play on the west coast, she drove a tractor for a month, sowing 50 acres for her father.

'Mrs. America' Gives Recipes To Women

ASBURY PARK, N.J. (UP)—Frances L. Cloyd, 23, the new "Mrs. America," squeezed into her bathing suit today and started out to earn her earfare back to California by reciting her favorite recipes to veteran housewives at county fairs.

Mrs. Cloyd, a five-foot six-inch, blue-eyed blonde, is the wife of Arthur T. Cloyd Jr., San Diego garage mechanic, and the mother of three small children, one only seven weeks old. She won the 11th annual Mrs. America contest Sunday night over a field of 30 married beauties after placing fourth last year.

She also won the contest title of "Most Beautiful Mother in the U.S.A."

Extensive Damage To Cars In Crash

About $650 damage was done to two cars when they collided at 3:20 Sunday afternoon at Fort and Quadra Streets, city police reported. There were 10 occupants of the cars, but the only injured were two children, their hurts of a minor nature.

Police said the collision was between two cars driven by Aubrey T. Brown, Hut 1138 Golf Hill, Work Point Barracks, and Harris G. Paterson, 3967 Blenkinsop Road. The impact turned the Paterson car over on its side.

At Jubilee Hospital, five-year-old Robert Paterson was found to be suffering from shock and 19-month-old Lynn Paterson was treated for cuts. Police estimated damage to the Paterson car would total $400, about $250 to the Brown vehicle.

Police said that Brown would be summoned for careless driving.

EXCELLENT CHOICE

BECAUSE OF THE HIGH REGARD IN which he is held by labor and the people of British Columbia in general, no less than because of his wide background knowledge from previous hearings, Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan almost automatically qualifies as the most desirable figure who could have been chosen to conduct a Royal Commission of Inquiry into this province's Workmen's Compensation Act. His wide judicial experience and the knowledge he has of the specific subject under review are characteristics which will inspire confidence in the findings and recommendations that will be the outgrowth of the inquiry.

Many applications for amendment of the act as it now stands have been made since the Chief Justice filed his last report on the matter. Changed conditions give them specific importance in a number of instances. It may be taken for granted that adequate weight will be attached to them by a British Columbian thoroughly conversant with the province's genuine desire to give a fair deal to the workman and to keep in the forefront of social service work in which the act may fairly be considered an important element.

It would be unrealistic to suggest that all the changes sought will be endorsed by the commissioner. What may be expected, on the basis of previous inquiries conducted by the Chief Justice, is a fair and courteous hearing for all parties and judicious recommendations relative to the points that are raised.

PRACTICAL APPROACH

A SITUATION IN WHICH THE CITIZENS of a country—one of the largest producers of fish in the world—are among the smallest consumers of that commodity, would present a challenge to any government official charged with responsibilities in regard to the industry. Hon. R. W. Mayhew, Canada's able Minister of Fisheries, has so interpreted the problem that confronts him, and he has set out in typically practical fashion to solve it. Last week saw the opening of a conference in Ottawa between government and business representatives designed to bring greater stability to this $200,000,000-a-year industry.

Back of the problem is the Dominion's present dependence on foreign markets to absorb as much as 85 per cent of the fisheries' annual output. This makes it difficult to plan with certainty on future operations. The solution, as Mr. Mayhew sees it, is to encourage domestic use of Canadian fish—a policy which involves education of housewives in the advantages of fish in the diet, as well as projects for the better preservation, distribution and preparation of fish.

In the course of his investigation of the whole problem, the minister has travelled from coast to coast in Canada, not forgetting the new province of Newfoundland, whose fishing industry is a mainstay. As sitting member of Parliament for Victoria, Mr. Mayhew has naturally given full consideration to British Columbia's position as a producer of sea-food, and there are indications that much may be possible in further extending the home market for this commodity. In this connection the development of an improved refrigeration car promises much in the way of sales in the interior parts of the Dominion, so that fresh B.C. salmon may yet become a frequent item on prairie menus.

BELOW THE SURFACE

PERIODIC ATTEMPTS BY RUSSIA'S satellite countries to prove the strength of their governmental regimes by publicly rooting out "spies," "traitors," "imperialistic agents" and other subversive elements, have an equally significant effect in that they reveal considerable weaknesses in these supposedly united and allegedly close-knit Communist administrations. Almost every week there is an announcement by one of the Cominform nations that another heretofore highly placed Communist Party member has been charged with treachery. Political and military circles have borne the brunt of these exposures, but no section of society in the countries concerned seems to be exempt. A new charge has lately been added to the old accusations of capitalist espionage, counter-revolutionary activities and other familiar Communist terms. The defection of Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia from the Balkan satellites, in a flood of charges of collusion and conspiracy with the officially out-of-favor leader.

To us in the free world, the most striking aspect of these recurrent purges is the revelation of intrigue within the Communist structure. It may well be, of course, that many of the expelled officials and military leaders are not actual "traitors" but merely the victims of some more powerful competitor within the Party hierarchy, who has chosen this method of disposing of them. The only other interpretation is that, despite Communist claims of solidarity and 100-per-cent adherence, there are still many true patriots in these countries who have not ceased to work for the best interests of their native lands—in spite of the risks entailed in subversive activities against the Russian-dominated government.

If this be the situation among high-ranking officers and officials, what must it be among the common people, the men and women who have not been screened for leadership and who manage to keep their real opinions to themselves? It is not hard to imagine that there may be building up within the totalitarian states a vast unrest and anger against those who have assumed power and have sought to run affairs in conformity with the wishes of their Kremlin bosses. The situation conceivably may yet reach a point at which some spark will set off a chain reaction that will not stop short of widespread violence. At any rate, the Communist governmental structure would seem to have a good many flaws, whose effect must ultimately be felt.

A LIVING CULTURE

FRENCH CULTURE HISTORICALLY has been a guiding light for Europe and the western world. The art, the music, the literature and the philosophy of life of that great nation have contributed immeasurably to our way of living, our standard of values, our intellectual pursuits. So it is that France—and particularly Paris—has attracted from other lands the questing minds, the free intellects, the students who wish to follow learning in an atmosphere devoid of repression or dogma. That is a heritage of which any nation might be proud, transcending military achievement, although France need take no minor position in the latter category.

The extension of French learning has not been confined to sources located in France itself. The French school in Rome was founded nearly 300 years ago. The School of Athens is more than a century old. The Galatasaray High School was founded in Turkey in 1868. In London the French University began operating in 1910, and has since been joined by the French High School, with a staff of more than 50, and the Institute of Applied Economic Science. In addition, schools of various levels have been established in Holland, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Egypt and South American countries, all of which are more than 25 years old. These institutions represent an outpouring of academic knowledge and culture whose influence cannot be underestimated.

Of late years the work has been extended through the provision of scholarships, and in this connection the facilities made available to Canadian students by the Government of France are assuming an increasingly important position. Although the granting of scholarships was begun in 1919, and they are now open to students of 47 countries, the first to be awarded to Canadians comprised 50 summer scholarships granted in 1945. The practice has continued, and announcement of 43 such grants to Canadians for full 10-month university years was recently made. The scholarships are open only to graduate students, who wish to broaden the scope of their selected field.

In war and peace, the bonds between this Dominion and France have become traditional, and it is doubtful if any other country has been so generous in providing scholarships for Canadians. It is a contact that will result in benefit to both lands, for in exchange for her academic gifts France will receive the understanding and admiration that must come to all who enjoy the opportunity of study within her borders.

IN THE FOREFRONT

THERE WILL BE WIDE APPROVAL OF Mr. Dutkowski's reaffirmation of the intention of the arena management to encourage full use of the structure by the youth of this city. As a memorial to those citizens of the community who gave their lives for their country in the war against totalitarianism, the building has been planned from the commencement as a place where the young people of Greater Victoria could enjoy clean, healthful sport, and where there could be inculcated those principles and precepts which would have been desired by the men and women who are thus commemorated.

The local entry in the Pacific Coast Hockey League is, of course, a major consideration in the use of the building, as are those other public entertainments to be provided by musical, dramatic and other organizations. But the purpose of the memorial would have been missed had the interests of the children and teenagers been overlooked. In the extent of their opportunities to skate, practice, play hockey and otherwise get the best use out of the new ice surface will be measured the fulfillment of the memorial plan.

OUR LOSS, OTTAWA'S GAIN

SPORTS ORGANIZATIONS AS WELL as agencies interested in physical education and allied recreational activities, have noted and appreciated the excellent job done by Mr. Ernest Lee as Director of Physical Education and Recreation for British Columbia until his recent resignation from that post. A fortunate combination of ability and personality enabled him to win the support of numerous groups whose co-operation is necessary for the successful institution of the program his department sought to conduct.

Announcement recently of his appointment to the position of National Director of Physical Fitness in the Health Department will be received by his acquaintances here with mixed feelings. They will, quite naturally, be gratified to learn that his capacities have been recognized at Ottawa. But they will be inclined to wonder why British Columbia did not offer him sufficient inducements to stay with the job he was doing so well.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

WHAT NOW?

THE STEEL STRIKE which now seems imminent in the United States is a nightmare to a good many people, but to none more than to President Truman's Council of Economic Advisers. Council chairman Edwin Nourse, vice-chairman Leon Keyserling and their subordinates are now anxiously examining their charts and figures as they prepare their quarterly economic report to the President. The economists are willing to express a very tentative and guarded optimism, but if the prospect of a long steel strike is mentioned, optimism gives way to Stygian gloom.

THE SIMPLEST way to understand the economic conundrum with which the economists are anxiously wrestling is to draw two lines on a piece of paper. Draw one straight across the sheet. Then draw another, starting lower down, rising gradually until it meets the first line, and then almost immediately plunging down. Label the first line buying power, and the second production. These two lines tell the postwar economic history of the United States, from which the economists are trying to deduce the future.

The point where the second line meets the first tells what happened. When the postwar inflation came to an end, when there were suddenly more things to buy than money to buy them. The lines met and crossed late last year. Goods began to pile up on the shelves. Orders were canceled. Men were laid off. Production was cut back, and the present recession took hold.

WHAT NOW? That is the question which the President's economic advisers must try to answer as best they can. The answer really depends on whether the buying power line holds steady, as it has done ever since the war, or whether it begins to plummet down after the production line.

The economists admit that there has never been a time when it was harder to peer into the economic future. There is one hopeful but inconclusive clue. Last month the production line on the graphs gave a sharp jerk upwards, while buying power held steady.

Before that, especially in July, the government economists were much more worried than they were willing publicly to admit. In January of this year, industrial production stood at over 190, almost double the late thirties. But January was the month when business began to get nervous. In February production fell off five points, and in each of the succeeding four months the same steady, ominous slide went on. This was more than a seasonal slump, since the figures are corrected for seasonal variations.

IN JULY the pace quickened, with a fall of seven points. Then there was real alarm. In a short six months, production had slumped off more than 15 per cent, and if this went on, something really ugly was in store, since buying power could not hold up indefinitely against the steady pressure of lay-offs. But now that they have seen the preliminary figures for last month, the economists are breathing easier. For August brought a sharp seven-point rise in the production line, which is now again pointing up toward the buying power line.

The employment figures suggest part of the reason why buying power has not sagged as the economists feared it might. There are now just over four million unemployed workers. This is a rise of about 800,000 since last May. But this steady increase of unemployment has been paralleled by a steady increase in employment. The total employment figure of over 59,000,000 is more than a million higher than it was last May.

THIS APPARENT contradiction is easily explained. About 1,800,000 people were added to the total work force, mostly from schools and colleges, and the economy was able to absorb a million of this total. This is the main reason why buying power has held steady despite the increase in unemployment.

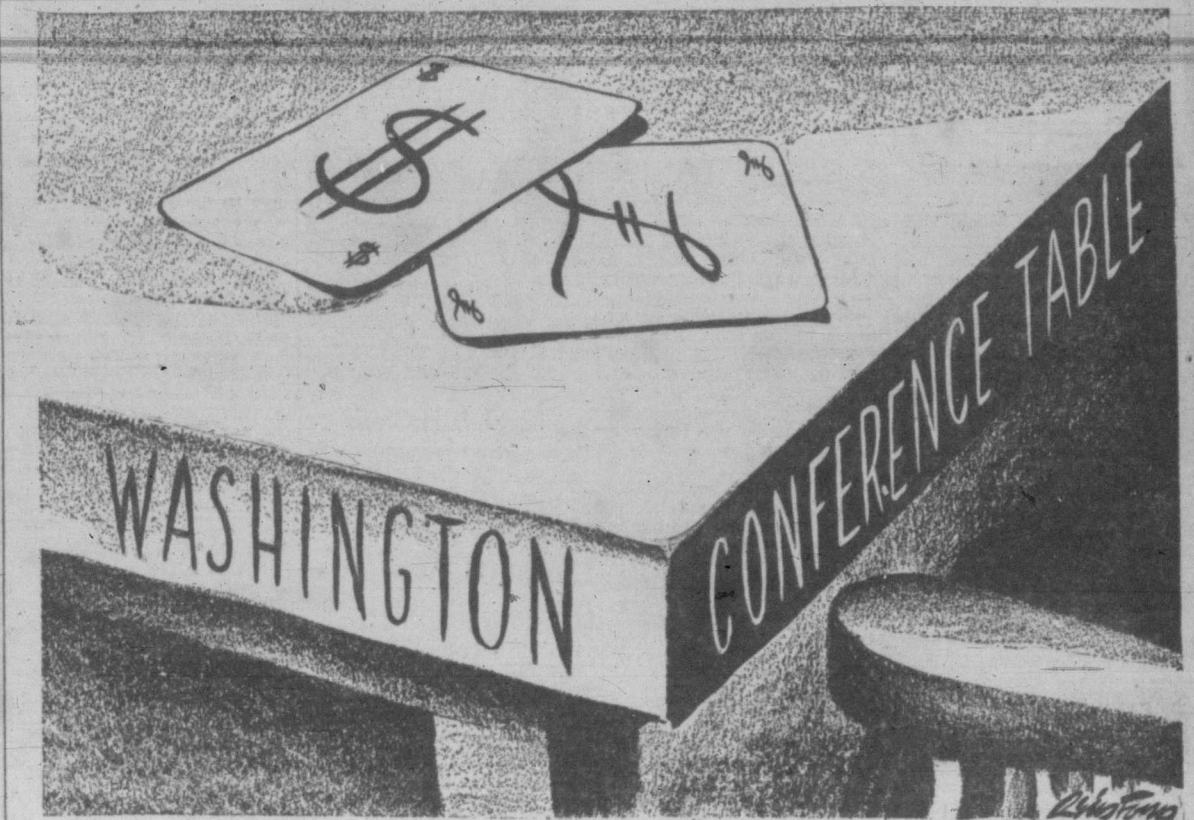

Thus on the whole the economists are inclined to a cautious, finger-crossed optimism. They believe—perhaps hope is a better word—that buying power will continue to hold steady, that production will move up to meet it, and that some sort of long-term equilibrium may be established at least, although with a good deal less than full employment. But it must be emphasized that this tentative forecast does not reckon with an industry-wide steel strike.

The fact is, the economists will tell you that there is really no way of assessing the effects on the national economy of a long strike in the country's basic industry. There is no real precedent on which to base a judgment. Other postwar strikes have had a temporary and inflationary effect. But steel is different.

A STEEL STRIKE, if it goes on long enough, will mean lay-offs and closed doors in virtually every major industry, the automobile industry above all. This in turn might pull the national buying power really sharply down for the first time since the war, with incalculable consequences. That is why the President's economic advisers are prayerfully hoping that by some miracle the steel dispute will be settled without a strike. And it is something that both sides to the dispute might do well to bear in mind.

These (Big Four Foreign Ministers) conferences from now on seem to me to be like the steam gauge on a boiler. . . . They indicate the pressure which has been built up. —Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Whose Play Now?

GLOBAL SURVEY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

GERMANY'S fresh attempt to establish a democracy is under way in the fine old university town of Bonn on the Rhine, where her new parliament is holding its first sessions.

It is a heroic effort, surrounded by appalling difficulties. Germany is only the shadow of her former self, the victim of her own misdeeds. The country is physically divided, for only the western areas occupied by British, American and French military forces are included in the government. Russia is holding out in her zone and is said to plan the establishment of a Communist government which will become a satellite of Moscow.

That is the material with which the young parliament has to start work. And in large degree it is an adventure into strange surroundings, for Germany's experience with democracy, in the accepted sense of the term, has been meagre. Her last attempt in that direction was in the ill-fated Weimar republic which bridged the few brief years between the autocracy of the Kaiser and the Hitlerian dictatorship.

The world will watch this rebirth of a nation hopefully but not without misgivings. Twice within a century Germany has plunged the whole globe into conflict. Inevitably the question arises whether there is danger of her making another gamble with war.

Of course, that contingency will be taken care of as long as the Allies keep a military check on the country. But lasting peace can come only with the establishment of real democracy and international brotherhood. That is the task which confronts the new government at Bonn.

There is no reason, as I see it, to doubt that it is possible to achieve success. The Germans as a whole are not a warlike folk.

I think their attitude may be summed up in a little story told to me years ago by the late Sir Austen Chamberlain, famous British Foreign Minister, about the historic peace of Locarno, in which Sir Austen participated.

This pact, signed at Locarno, Switzerland, Oct. 16, 1925, during the time of the Weimar republic, pledged Germany, Belgium, France, Britain and Italy mutually to guarantee the peace in western Europe. After the powers had agreed to the terms, but before the treaty had been signed, Sir Austen, Foreign Minister Aristide Briand of France and Foreign Minister Gustav Stresemann, held a little party of celebration among themselves.

As the three sat about a tea table congratulating one another, there was a knock at the door and a German secretary entered with a telegram from Stresemann. The latter read the message and tossed it over to his colleagues. It was from the German foreign office and ordered Stresemann to delay signing the treaty.

Sir Austen and Briand, terribly shocked, passed the message back without comment. Stresemann sat and stared at it for long minutes. Finally his close-cropped, bullet head came up and he snapped out of the corner of his mouth to the secretary:

"Tell them to kiss my foot. I sign."

So he signed for peace. And we have a right to hope that this is the spirit of the new Germany.

Solve It Without Rancor

From The Letter-Review

HISTORY will record no greater piece of human folly than the fact that the Anglo-American economic situation is made worse by insolent and usually ignorant interchange of criticism between individuals in Britain and the U.S. At a time when any hope of restoring modern civilization depends on the close co-operation of these two great nations, that co-operation is made increasingly difficult by stupid insults.

FINAL FOLLY

No excuse exists for the tendency of some elements of the United States to demand that Britain abase herself, in her requests for aid.

The final folly is the story from London that Britain will insist on reducing expenditures by lessening military effort, in place of some abandonment of Socialist experiments, coupled with American failure to understand that that country has no choice, and must engage in large-scale support of British policy in the Middle and Far East.

Externally, British difficulties continue to be increased by pressure from other countries for release of Sterling debts. The British government seems determined to pay these in full, in pounds of unreasonably high value.

NO CREDIT

One correspondent of The Economist argues that the United States gives no credit to Britain, for payments of this nature, running into £200,000,000 a year. That is absolutely true, but who in the U.S. ever heard of this? Who in the U.S. knows that Britain is paying India and other countries for the privilege of having defended them in the war? Who in the U.S. would consider it virtue on the part of Britain to pay these debts in pounds of artificially high value?

SIMPLE FACTS

Mr. Truman's address to the American Legion was a statesmanlike contribution to good-will between the two nations. The facts are very simple. Britain carried too much of the wartime load, in proportion to her population and resources, especially in view of the fact that the British economic position had been decaying before the Second World War, and probably before the First.

Isolationism in the United States was largely responsible for that, but the U.S., once attacked by Japan, exploded all past sins by a magnificent war effort. But Britain still carries too large a share of the burden of defending civilized society.

Britain, unfortunately, insists that the restoration of trade must be along lines which will fall in with British theories of Socialism and planned economy, so that there is good reason to sympathize with United States' irritation at Britain, at one and the same moment asking for continued American economic assistance, and refusing to accept the right of the U.S. to insist on maintaining a non-Socialist system of society.

FREE MARKET

But real mass production is dependent on a large free market to absorb the great volume of goods produced. America's 3,000,000 square miles without an internal tariff wall is such a market. And here, obviously, capitalist industrialism has flourished as it has nowhere else.

In Europe mass production has always lacked that wide stage, although island Britain found the system workable so long as it produced for a world-wide economic empire rooted in free trade.

As for continental Europe, it has practiced capitalism piecemeal and halfheartedly. To make up for the failure to create a great free market its business leaders resorted to cartels and other restrictive agreements for the rigging of prices, the sharing of materials and techniques and the division of markets. These devices were symptoms of Europe's poor economic health.

SINGLE MARKET

Any of these nations may live under socialism if it wishes—without trouble from us. But let none wearily plead the failures of capitalism until Europe has made the supreme, long-delayed effort to achieve through economic union the big single market indispensable to that system.

To earn its salt, the capitalist system must foster a high state of industrialization. Well-developed industrialism means mass

CLIPPED AT RANDOM

OFFICIOUS OFFICIALDOM
Montreal Star

Someone in the British Ministry of Food seems to have grown either over-officious or over-sensitive or both. Bureaucracy's homely features have put on "a threatening and rather silly frown; the civil service instead of tending to its business is having a little go at petty politics.

What stirred up the flurry was the action of a business firm in printing anti-nationalization slogans on the cartons in which its product is put up for sale. The product happens to be sold under government ration regulations. And government control of the sale of the company's product seems to someone to extend to government control of the thinking of the company's officers.

Why shouldn't the company put what it pleases on its wrappers? It might be doubtful salesmanship to needle its only customer, but surely nothing to warrant officious official protest.

Britain is still a free country. Or is it?

VIOLENCE IN CINEMA

Saturday Night

A British film critic, writing of the current British screenings of American films, observes that "assault and battery seem to have become Hollywood's trademark," and those who are fairly regular attendants at the cinema in Canada will probably endorse the verdict. What interests us in the connection is the question whether familiarity with scenes of assault and battery on the realistic screen may not have a good deal to do with the readiness to resort to violence in real life.

We do not suggest any remedy; the excessive use of the censorship has greater dangers than those which it is supposed to combat. Adolescents who are fortunate enough to have parents who are concerned about them can be protected by some care as to the kind of films they see—though even such care can hardly take any more effective form than that of kindly advice in these undisciplined days.

GROWTH IN SUMMER

New York Times

The trouble with summer is that everything grows too much. That is, the wrong things grow too much. A large tomato, ripening on the vine, is a very fine sight, as is the increasing circumference of a watermelon. Such things are understandable and are good, and no one can possibly raise any objection to them. But crabgrass grows too much in summer, sumac comes up from hidden roots and at the end of summer is a forest, and even more noticeably the summer. But there is more. Children grow too much in summer, growing out of shoes and trousers and, too often, right into adolescence. Adults grow in summer also. Because of the growth of everything else in summer, they grow grey. Realizing they are growing grey in summer, they grow tired. Due to the fact everything grows too much in the summer, that season is a very tiring, as well as trying, time. It is not the summer's heat which is meretricious, nor the humidity, but just the fact that everything grows too much.

Empire Council Of B.E.S.L. Holds Sessions In Ottawa

By MEL SUFRIN

OTTAWA (CP)—Dedicated to helping veterans, their dependents and widows in every part of the Commonwealth, the British Empire Service League took on an increasing load during the last two years.

The 10th biennial conference of the B.E.S.L. Empire Council, which got down to business today, received an outline of the work in its many phases in the two-year report which was placed before delegates from 25 countries.

"Political and economic difficulties which affected the whole world during the period were, of course, reflected in the experience of a body which is so closely identified with all the territories of the British Commonwealth," the report said.

"The manner in which those difficulties were met and surmounted, in so far as they affected it, is the measure of the league's virility."

During the two years since the last conference the B.E.S.L., which describes itself as "the biggest British institution that exists, over 14,000 branches throughout the Empire," handled more than 8,000 cases of distress among veterans or war widows, requests for tracing relatives, war graves, and other matters relating to pensions, medals and discharge.

NEW MEMBERS

The report noted entry into the B.E.S.L. of several new Commonwealth organizations, bringing the league membership to 30 countries.

New members were Sierra Leone, Nigeria, Antigua and Honduras.

India and Pakistan had come in as reconstituted organizations, and Burma, now an independent state, had become a branch of the British Legion while remaining affiliated with the B.E.S.L.

The report said Newfoundland, now Canada's 10th province, is still under consideration. The Canadian Legion, whose council met in Ottawa prior to the B.E.S.L. conference, has offered Newfoundland membership and the matter will be taken up at the September meeting of the Newfoundland Great War Veterans' Association.

Prime Minister Asks Canadians To Back Community Chest

Prime Minister St. Laurent in a formal message from his office in Ottawa has asked all Canadians to support the Community Chest drive across the country next month.

Victoria's campaign has already started and canvassing for $135,000 to support 22 agencies for a year will start early in October.

Prime Minister St. Laurent, in his message to the community chests, says: "The voluntary welfare agencies render a service which is beyond the scope of government action, but which meets needs often as urgent and sometimes more urgent than those provided for by the welfare services of federal, provincial and municipal governments."

"These voluntary services depend for their existence upon the generosity of our citizens and as Prime Minister I consider it a privilege to be invited to urge my fellow-citizens to give enough for all Red Feather services through their local community chest or welfare federation."

Plans For Season Of Little Theatre

Annual general meeting of the Victoria Little Theatre, held at the Theatre in Langham Court, discussed plans for the forthcoming season, which opens Sept. 19 with the specially-written comedy, "Moon for Melisande," and will be followed by a list of plays to be announced later.

New by-laws read and adopted provided an increase in the board of directors, six new members being elected as follows: V. C. Chadwick, Henry Gunning, Leonard McCann, Barbara Smythe, Dorothy Whyte and Marjorie Barker.

Two "Oscars" for the best performances during the past season were won by Henry Gunning and Grace Tuckey, and were presented by A. P. Dawe, chairman, amid considerable applause. H. S. Hurn, director of Community Drama, spoke of the Canadian Little Theatre generally, the forthcoming Drama Festival plans, and offered those present his best personal wishes for their future success.

Boy, 13, Killed; Girl, 5, Drowned

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP)—A 13-year-old cyclist died and a five-year-old girl is believed drowned in a series of mishaps throughout the lower mainland during the week-end.

Gene Lefler, son of L. W. Lefler, died in hospital a few minutes after his bicycle had been in collision with a Pacific Stage Lines bus.

The five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jahney is believed drowned. She disappeared from a wharf near her home.

Moss Fire Quenched

SHELLEY, Man. (CP)—Residents of this eastern Manitoba town and fire rangers from nearby Whitemouth and Rennie combined to bring under control Saturday afternoon a fire which had broken out late Friday on a section of a large moss-drying rack here.

A. W. Braine, district forester, eastern section, said the fire broke out in property belonging to a moss-processing plant where stagnant moss from nearby Julius Bog is treated.

Fire-fighting equipment from Lac du Bonnet was sent to the scene of the blaze early Saturday, he said.

Walter Winchell Seeks New Sponsor

NEW YORK (AP)—Radio commentator Walter Winchell will change sponsors at the end of this year. The American Broadcasting Company announced Friday that Winchell's present sponsor, the Kaiser-Frazer Corporation, "will not continue in network radio at the conclusion of this year." His 1950 sponsor will be announced shortly.

Winchell is one of the highest paid individuals in radio. Trade circles estimate his pay at some $700,000 a year.

Bold Thief Gets $235 From Wallet

A wallet containing $235 in cash and personal papers was stolen by a bold thief who entered Suite 48 of the Montrose Apartments, occupied by Douglas Raine, at 7:45 Sunday morning, city police reported.

Raine told police that he was awakened by a sound and saw a stranger in his room. "When I yelled at him, asking what he was doing there, the man ran out of the room," Raine told police.

Raine said he checked to see if anything had been taken and found the wallet missing from his trousers' pocket.

At 10:30 W. J. Stanley, 819 Fort Street, found the empty wallet in the doorway at 716

Fort. He turned it over to Constable Edward Hamer.

A police search of the downtown area failed to locate the man Raine described as the thief.

B.C. Port Record In Wheat Volume

VANCOUVER (CP) — Wheat moved out of Vancouver in record volume last month—the first month of the 1949-50 grain season—as ships from a dozen nations loaded the harvest.

More than 5,300,000 bushels of grain was shipped during the month, compared with 946,000 during the initial month last year.

Total volume for the 1948-49 crop year was approximately 60,000,000 bushels, against 35,000,000 bushels loaded through the port's facilities the year before.

Says Auto Greatest Curse Since Adam's

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The automobile is the greatest curse on the human race since Adam committed the original sin, a Roman Catholic priest told parishioners Sunday.

Rev. Thomas F. Coakley also termed the auto the "greatest force for home-breaking in all history."

Urging his flock to buy a house before they buy a car, the priest declared:

"A house would tend to keep people home, where they should spend most of their time, anyway. An automobile has a tendency to entice them and their children away from home."

BUTTERED PUP—He doesn't have a name, so we'll just call him Butterball. Anyway, Butterball got stuck between two buildings—four inches apart—so somebody called for the police. The police were stuck too, so they called Steve Rose of the Oakland, Calif., S.P.C.A. Then they all went out to a cafe, got a half-gallon of butter along with a half-gallon of lard, melted same and poured it all over Butterball (top left). With the help of a rope and a hefty tug (top right), out popped Butterball. Butterball (lower), with rescuers Rose (left) and officers Don Fullmore and Herman Goodwin said "Thanks, fellows—good butter, too!"

Huge Procession Tonight Marks Start Of Family Rosary Crusade

Thousands will walk in procession or travel in motor-car cavalcade to Royal Athletic Park tonight for the first Rosary Crusade Rally of the Diocese of Victoria, which has for its theme, "the family that prays together stays together."

Archbishop William Mark

Duke of Vancouver and Bishop James M. Hill of Victoria will address the gathering in company with Father Patrick Peyton, apostle of the Family Rosary, when the program begins at 8 in the park.

All Catholics of the city parishes and from surrounding areas, except those who go to Langford in motor-cars to meet a motor cavalcade of 200 cars which will come from Campbell River and points all the way down the island, will form a procession at St. Andrew's Cathedral along View Street between 6.15 and 6.45.

The procession from the Cathedral and motor cavalcade will join at the corner of Blanshard and Fort Streets and proceed together to Athletic Park. The route will include Fort, Douglas, Yates, Vancouver, Pandora and Cook.

John Hart, diocesan lay chairman of the Family Rosary Crusade, who will march in procession with Father Peyton, director, will address the gathering at Athletic Park.

Police escort will be given the procession which will be headed by a contingent of navy personnel.

The Eagles' male band, school-girls from city parishes under direction of the Sisters of St. Ann and boys under the brothers will follow. C.Y.O. members will march behind the C.Y.O. banner and ladies of the parish behind the Catholic Women's League banner. All men of city parishes will follow the Holy Name banner and Knights of Columbus behind the K. of C. banner.

A decorated float of Our Lady of the Rosary will be followed by fourth degree Knights of Columbus and families participating in the Living Rosary.

Nurses in uniform, religious, Christian Brothers of Ireland, Father Peyton, Mr. Hart, members of the clergy and hierarchy will follow in that order.

Planes will drop flowers over Athletic Park, once the program is underway.

Would Make Dublin Ocean-Air Terminal

DUBLIN (UP)—U.S. officials will confer with Irish Government representatives in Dublin this week on the possibility of using Dublin airport instead of Shannon as a trans-Atlantic air terminal, it was disclosed today.

Irish officials said it would cost at least $4,000,000 to develop an airport in Dublin. It might also turn the Shannon airport, on Ireland's west coast, into a financial liability, they said.

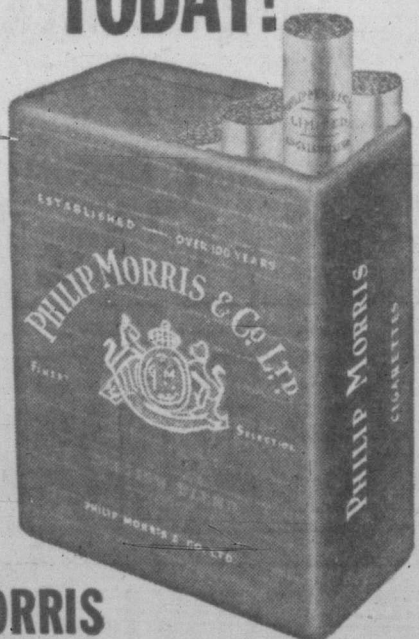

Many U.S. airlines officials have favored the transfer to facilitate direct flights between New York, Dublin, Paris and Rome. Shannon is about 150 miles from Dublin.

Some American officials felt, however, that the rerouting would not be wise because planes leaving Dublin for New York would be forced to carry a reduced load to make the longer flight.

Sidney Rock Wool Insulation Means Year 'Round Comfort . . . Cuts Fuel Bills as Much as 35%

Cottage or castle . . . in existing homes or new construction . . . the application of Sidney Rock Wool Insulation offers the kind of comfort you never thought possible. Yes, year 'round comfort . . . snug, warm with drafts reduced in winter . . . cool, livable comfort in the heat of summer. Check these advantages . . .

CASH SAVINGS—Up to 35% reduced fuel bills quickly pay for application, save from then on.

HOME IMPROVEMENT—Increases value and salability of your home; eliminates lath marks; saves redecorating costs.

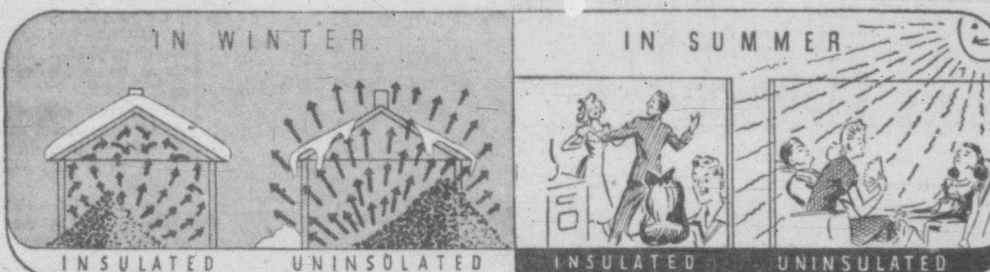

HEALTHIER—Reduces drafts; saves on doctors bills; helps comfortable sleep; sanitary; vermin-proof; moisture-proof.

MORE COMFORT—Keeps your home warm in winter, cool in summer.

FIRE PROTECTION—A barrier against spread of flames.

PERMANENT—Lasts for life of your home; no maintenance or replacement costs.

EASILY APPLIED—Applied in a few hours; no inconvenience, fuss or muss.

Valuable heat escapes through walls and ceilings of uninsulated homes. A quick, easy application of Sidney Rock Wool in ceilings or sidewalls . . . or both . . . acts as an effective barrier against the passage of heat generated by your heating system and reduces a fuel bill saving up to 35%. Drafts are reduced and a healthier, more even temperature is maintained in each room throughout the house.

The same insulating properties of Sidney Rock Wool that retain the heat generated by your heating equipment in winter act as a barrier against the passage of oppressive heat from the summer sun. Heat from outside is blocked out. This means cool, restful sleeping conditions and day-long living comfort in the hottest weather.

HOW SIDNEY ROCK WOOL IS APPLIED—Effective Sidney Rock Wool Insulation is available in two forms. In ceilings, Sidney Rock Wool is "blown" between the joists in a uniform layer. There's no fuss or muss in application and the job can be accomplished in just a few hours. For sidewalls, Sidney Rock Wool is manufactured in paper backed "batts" in Full-Thick and Semi-Thick sizes to fit snugly between wall studs.

THE COST—A Sidney Approved Insulation Applicator will quickly estimate the cost of insulating your home. The nominal cost is soon written off in substantially reduced fuel bills. Sidney Rock Wool Insulation is a capital improvement you make just once. The fuel savings go on for the life of your home and the year 'round comfort attained is permanent.

Progress Reported In Fight Against Cancer Of Lungs

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Chest X-rays to find tuberculosis can turn up lung cancers at an early, curable stage, a Boston surgeon said here at the week-end.

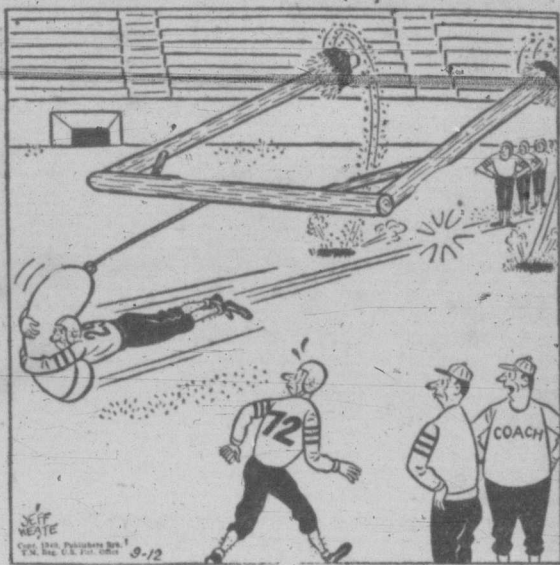

Lung cancer is the second most deadly form of cancer. It is outranked as a killer only by cancer of the stomach and intestines. Surgery is the only treatment for lung cancer.

Lung cancer is so lethal mainly because it's caught too late, Dr. Richard H. Overhold, of Tufts College medical school told the American Cancer Society's conference on cancer detection.

Hundreds of thousands of people each year are getting chest X-rays in mass surveys to find T.B. early. Pictures show healthy chests and chests that might be affected by tuberculosis—but some show silent shadows that might be lung cancer.

TIME OUT!

By Jeff Keate

"Shows promise as a tackle, don't you think?"

One study found that 40 percent of these shadows not due to T.B. or other troubles were cancers of the lung, Dr. Overhold reported.

He urged the cancer society to consider methods of co-operating with tuberculosis associations and other agencies so that all such cases could be checked soon and followed closely.

THREE METHODS

Lung cancers now can be diagnosed much more accurately than any form of internal cancers, he said, even though the cancer is hidden inside near the centre of the body.

One method is X-ray pictures. Another is to look for cancer cells in secretions from the lung. A third is to look inside the lung with a bronchoscope.

It isn't practical to make such tests, except X-rays, on everyone or even upon everyone over 45, when lung cancer becomes more common.

Dr. Overhold said there are four stages of cancer—latent, silent, urgent and rampant.

Latent cancer is the earliest. The cancer is so tiny it's invisible by present methods of detection. It gives no signs.

Silent cancer is one that has started to grow but doesn't yet produce any symptoms, pain or anything else.

Urgent cancer is one that is giving signals that it is there. By now there's only a little time left to save the person.

Rampant cancer is a big growth almost certain to kill. It is growing rapidly and may be spreading to other parts of the body.

He said medical students should be trained to recognize cancer in the silent stage, not just the rampant stage.

Labor Congress Executive In Calgary; Convention Thursday

CALGARY (BUP)—The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada will be asked to ratify the suspension of the Canadian Seamen's Union during the convention in Calgary, President Percy Bengough said here today.

The T.L.C. president and his executive arrived in Calgary this morning and began preparing for the convention to begin next Thursday in the Mewata Armories. It was expected the 64th convention would be attended by more than 1,000 delegates. It is the third convention to be held in Calgary.

During an interview, Bengough was non-committal on the issues which will face the delegates next Thursday. Asked if communism within the ranks of the T.L.C. would be discussed, he replied: "That comes up at most of our meetings these days, but we already have a resolution on our books condemning communism within the trade union movement."

Speaking of the suspended Canadian Seamen's Union, Bengough said: "The C.S.U. was suspended by the congress executive in June, and the convention will have to be asked by the executive to ratify the suspension. They will either withdraw it or make it permanent."

The head of the 450,000-member trade movement added that the C.S.U. was not suspended because of communism within its organization.

"It was the action of the organization in the strike which caused the suspension. It's only as far as communistic activity may be detrimental to the trade union movement that leads to action by congress," he said.

Scottish Tradition Marks Lillian Grant's Marriage

Creating interest in Ontario, where the newlyweds will make their home, was the marriage ceremony, enriched with Scottish tradition, Saturday evening, at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, uniting Miss Lillian Mary Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, 2204 Cook Street, and John Barnard Davis, son of Mrs. John Davis of Vancouver and the late Mr. Davis.

Wedding principals were both members of the services during war years. Mr. Davis was a pilot with R.C.A.F., and is now with permanent forces at Trenton, Ont.

The bride served in Canadian Women's Army Corps as pipe-major. After receiving her appointment at Ottawa, she toured Canada twice and part of United States before going to Holland, France and Germany. She had been with the Dominion government service at Vancouver prior to her marriage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown presented to her by the city of Victoria when she reigned as May Queen. Remodelled by her mother, the dress featured a full skirt inset with gold lace, and similar lace edged the court train. The fitted bodice with puffed sleeves, featured a bertha collar, and double peplum of imported gossamer lace. She wore elbow-length gloves and carried a white prayer book mounted with an orchid.

Her veil of French silk net was held with a wreath of orange blossoms and lily of the valley, and her "something old" was a 17th century gold locket and chain, a family heirloom.

Mrs. Adelaide Duncan and Miss Mary Davis, sisters of the bride and groom, as senior attendants, wore similar gowns in pale pink taffeta. They had matching headresses and carried Colonial bouquets.

Junior bridesmaids, Miss Heather Duncan, niece of the bride, and Miss Jocelyn Young, wore white taffeta frocks with silken net overskirts. Grant tartan sashes with cairngorm shoulder brooches, and wreaths of tiny calla lilies in their hair, completed their costumes.

E. W. "Ted" Forman was best man. Ian Duncan and James Marrs, ushers, with young pages Ronald Marrs and Malcolm McMillan wore full highland dress.

Following the ceremony performed by Rev. J. L. W. McLean, the wedding party was piped from the church by members of the 16th Canadian Scottish Pipe Band.

At a reception, following in Windermere Hotel, John McDonald proposed the toast to the bride.

The couple left for Qualicum Beach on their honeymoon and later will travel through California, Mexico and Louisiana en route to Fort Erie where they will make their home.

Mrs. Davis wore a navy blue tulle suit with matching hat trimmed with osprey feathers, navy blue accessories, and caramel-toned topcoat, with fox collar trim.

Winnipeg Man Weds Local Girl

A wedding of interest in Winnipeg, home of the groom's parents, was solemnized by Rev. J. L. W. McLean in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church vestry Wednesday night when Jimmie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, of Victoria, became the bride of Sydney Mabb, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mabb of the Manitoba capital.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tailored navy blue suit with off-the-face hat in navy and white accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Her sole attendant was Mrs. V. Shanley in turquoise blue gown with navy accessories and a corsage bouquet of pink carnations. Vincent Shanley supported the groom.

A reception followed at the home of Mrs. Shanley, 874 Old Esquimalt Road, when a buffet supper was served. William Gizzard proposed the bridal toast.

The lace-covered table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake and flanked by vases of pink sweet peas and pink carnations.

The bride donned a navy blue top coat for a wedding trip to Jasper, Victoria will be the home of the newlyweds.

Daughters of St. George, Victoria Lodge, No. 83, K. of P. Hall, Cormorant Street Wednesday at 8.

Of Personal Interest

Miss Doreen Dalziel and Miss Pat Greenhill have returned to their homes in Victoria after a three-month trip through the United States and eastern Canada.

Following a three-month tour abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Simpson, with their children, Hamish and Sally, returned Sunday to their home at Glenlyon School, where Mr. Simpson is headmaster. They visited relatives in England and Scotland, and traveled extensively in France.

Mrs. Amy Clements of Leicester, England, who is having her first visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter Ball of 1025 Burdett Avenue, in 19 years, will leave Victoria Friday for Vancouver, and thence by train to Regina, where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brook, and their three children. Mrs. Clements plans to return to England in November.

Mr. Albert L. Farley, who recently earned his M.A. degree at University of British Columbia, left last week, accompanied by Mrs. Farley and their daughter, Wendy, for the east where he will begin studies for his Ph.D. at University of Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Farley have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Farley, and Mr. and Mrs. James Dickson, all of this city.

Mrs. E. Curless, mother of the groom, and Mr. Curless, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kauffman, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Tinker, and Misses Greta Petron and Dana Lybeck, all of Seattle, were in the city over the weekend to attend the marriage of Miss Marion Bernice Whysser and Mr. Marley Clyde Dahl, Saturday evening.

Miss Dorothy Farley, who has been employed with Department of Health and Welfare at Cranbrook since October, has been holidaying in northwestern states and also at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Farley, Victoria, for the past month. Next week she will enter University of California at Berkeley to complete studies for Master of Social Welfare degree, psychiatric specialty. Miss Farley, who will stay at International House, was the first winner of the Laura Holland Scholarship, when she graduated with her B.S.W. at University of British Columbia.

Miss Louise Slater, assisted by her sister, Miss Evelyn Slater, entertained at the home of her parents, 2281 Foul Bay Road, with a shower in honor of Miss Joan Goodmansson, bride-elect of the near future. Corsage bouquets were presented to the groom, guest, and her mother, Mrs. C. R. Goodmansson. Games were played, and refreshments served. Invited were Mesdames J. Godfrey, I. Stoddart, M. Van Nes, K. Edwards, M. Gelling, E. Porter, C. Drysdale, F. Carr, C. F. Boughiey, O. Day, O. Gilles, Foster, and Misses Audrey Goodmansson, Barbara Gelling and Doreen and Pat Heard.

Orphanage Auxiliary October Rummage Sale

First fall business meeting of Junior Auxiliary to B.C. Protestant Orphanage, was held at Memorial Hall and plans were made for a rummage sale to be held Oct. 1. Mrs. Jessie Hart and Miss Elizabeth Mackie were named co-conveners.

Reports were given on summer projects. A cruise through Gulf Islands was sponsored in June, and members assisted at the annual garden party at the home in August. Auxiliary also assisted at first anniversary Banfield Park picnic.

Miss Audrey Cridge reported on new sick room which has been provided for children. Miss Thelma Mills and Mrs. Orleana Jeffrey will take birthday presents to children marking birthdays this month.

Guest Speaker — Mrs. A. T. MacLean spoke on "Summer Camp of C.G.I.T. at Gliz Lake," when she addressed members of Alpha Group, Metropolitan United Church Women's Auxiliary, at their meeting at home of Mrs. E. V. Batstone. Mrs. F. H. Parsons presided. Tea was served by co-hostesses, Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. T. Adams. Next meeting will be at home of Mrs. T. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Boulter, accompanied by their son, Mr. Kenneth Boulter of Vancouver, have been holidaying in the Cariboo, and on the lower mainland.

In honor of his cousin, Miss Connie L. Jones, Digby, N.S., Mr. F. Albert "Spike" Booth entertained at a dance party Saturday evening at his parents' home, 2678 Lincoln Road. Dancing and games were enjoyed and refreshments served. Invited were Misses Pat Carstens, Dianne Finland, Pat Hamill, Connie Jones, Jean Kerr, Suzanne Matson, Trudeau Ramsay, Lauren Savage and Messrs. Ernie Davies, Tom Davy, Pat Hayward, Ross Noel and Gary Perry Shepard.

Mrs. C. Cliff and Mrs. R. E. Lohr were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Nora Elliott, a September bride-elect, at the home of Mrs. A. Thomson. The gifts were presented to the bride in a decorated basket by the Gordon twins, Dennis and Daniel. Invited guests were Mesdames T. Elliott, M. Oldfield, D. Oldfield, G. Morely, A. Fitzgerald, E. Durrance, G. Gordon, E. McCullough, E. Barker, H. Quinton, B. Page, I. Duggan, B. Doupe, N. Turner, M. King, D. Durrance, E. Johnson, E. Wilson, G. Wilson, F. Waring, F. Richards, D. Blake, A. Robinson, M. Reid, H. Gray, E. Palmer, G. Gray and J. Caldwell, and the Misses D. Hewitt, B. Johnson, M. Richards and L. Hearle.

Mrs. E. Moon entertained at her home on Finlayson Avenue with a surprise party in honor of her brother, Mr. Wilson Crossman, who leaves shortly for St. Martin's College, Olympia, Wash., and her sister, Miss Audrey Crossman, who will enter University of British Columbia. Games and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. Invited were Misses Madeline Marks, Beverly Wallace, June Day, June Taylor, Joyce Koller, Marilyn Gray, Sal Pettier and Messrs. Howard Bray, Jake Kerr, Myron Balagno, Bill Bartlett, Harold Moffatt, Eric Davies, Donald French and Jack Moon.

In honor of a recent bride-elect, Mrs. S. Mabb, the former Miss Jimmie Smith, Mrs. V. Shanley was an evening hostess at her home on Old Esquimalt Road. The honor guest was presented with a corsage bouquet of yellow gladioli and flame snapdragons on her arrival and later received a Spode bowl, with matching vases and a pair of Reverware saucepans. A buffet supper was served to guests, who included Mesdames J. Smith, F. Buchan, J. Rutherford, W. Conarroe, W. Thyme, S. Emery, D. Johnson, W. Gazzard, J. Emery, Misses A. Emery, C. Emery, Z. Emery and M. Tupman. Mrs. Mabb was also presented with a gift of kitchen utensils from her co-workers at the Department of National Defence, earlier in the week.

Autumn Setting For Afternoon Service

Autumn was in the air for the charmingly simple afternoon wedding at Holy Trinity Church, Sidney, Saturday, which united Evelyn Alice Black, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Black, Downey Road, Sidney, and Alan Frank Guthro Gosse, 1310 Summit Avenue, son of Mrs. K. Gosse and the late L. S. Gosse of Vancouver.

Rev. Roy Melville read the marriage service.

A seafaring blue suit with grey accessories and a corsage bouquet of pale pink and white carnations was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her father.

Her sole attendant was Mrs. W. Peters, as matron of honor, who wore a grey suit with pink and grey accessories and a corsage bouquet of pale pink carnations.

Tom Hinton was best man. Mrs. J. M. Copthorne played the wedding music on the church organ.

At a reception which followed at the home of the bride, the latter's mother in a bride-pearl grey suit and grey accessories and the groom's mother in a brown ensemble with grey accessories, assisted the young couple in receiving guests. A two-tiered wedding cake centred the table which was decorated with pale pink carnations and ferns.

Capt. M. Darling proposed the toast. The bride wore a flowered silk dress and grey accessories for a motoring trip up Island. On their return the young couple will make their home at 1310 Summit Avenue.

James Ray—First James Bay Guides will reopen Tuesday 6.30 in James Bay Hall, Niagara Street.

Plan For Parade Of Fashion Originals Sept. 22

Representatives of three groups sponsoring the fashion parade featuring Paris and London originals, to be held at Empress Hotel on Sept. 22 by T. Eaton Company, meet over the teacups in Eaton's Victoria tearoom to discuss plans. They are, left to right, Miss I. Birchall, Queen Alexandra Solarium Junior League, sponsoring the afternoon show; Mrs. A. Baker and Mrs. J. L. Howard, Victoria Symphony Society women's committee, in charge of evening show; Mrs. M. Laughlin, Victoria Business and Professional Women's Club, the 6.15 performance; and Mrs. F. McDonald, fashion consultant in Eaton's French Room. Ticket sale is being handled by representatives of three groups and all proceeds will benefit their philanthropic projects.

California Trip Follows Nuptials

A full-skirted shimmering white satin gown on train was worn by Lovorn Grace Lange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lange, 841 Sevenoaks Road, for her marriage to Norman Harry Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas, 2727 Mark Street, in Grace Lutheran Church, Saturday night.

Escorted down the aisle on the arm of her uncle R. B. Lange, the bride, her gown fashioned with lace yoke, lily-point sleeves and wearing a coronet of orange blossoms over her head veil, was preceded by a lovely bridal entourage.

Miss Mildred Lange, her sister's bridesmaid, was gown in pink moire taffeta with matching headpiece, while Miss Thelma Stephenson wore pale green taffeta.

Another sister of the bride, Miss Phyllis Lange was flower girl in simple, pink taffeta with white lace and embroidery trim, and Miss Silvia Thomas, the groom's sister, was in mauve taffeta with similar trim.

Rev. Jansen came from Seattle to read the nuptial service, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. J. Kirkwood, sang "Because." Mixed summer flowers decorated the church.

Arnold Goyette and Bill Krieger attended the groom. Norman Lange, brother of the bride, and Allan Goyette, cousin of the groom, were ushers.

R. J. Saunders proposed the toast to the bride at a reception which followed in the Seamen's Institute Hall on Superior Street. Summer flowers decorated the hall.

The bride donned a pale grey gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage bouquet of orchids for the motoring honeymoon to California. On their return the young couple will reside at 3231 Albina Street.

Lodge Plans Include Sale, Tea, Banquet

Plans for a rummage sale, an afternoon tea and a banquet to honor a visiting lodge official, highlighted Victoria Purple Star Lodge, No. 104, L.O.B.A., meeting, held in Orange Hall, recently.

Worthy Mistress, Mrs. H. Dent, presided, assisted by Deputy Mistress Mrs. O. McKay. A rummage sale, to be held in Hard-of-Hearing Hall, Wednesday, will be convened by Mrs. O. McKay, it was decided. The home of Mrs. P. W. Wilson, 1837 Crescent Road, will be the setting for an afternoon tea on Sept. 23, which will be in aid of the fall bazaar, Oct. 29 in Loughheed's Banquet Hall.

Plans were made to receive Right Worshipful Grand Mistress of British Columbia, Mrs. H. Gill of Vancouver, on her official visit, and Mrs. E. J. Haddy was named convener of a banquet in her honor.

Members voted a cash donation for Loyal Protestant Home for Children in New Westminster. Mrs. I. Burt submitted financial statement of garden party fund, proceeds of which amounted to $52.75. A new member, Mrs. W. McBratney was welcomed.

New Member—Women's Auxiliary to Prince Edward Branch, No. 91, met with Mrs. J. B. Bell, president, in the chair. A new member, Mrs. W. Savage, was welcomed. Following business, refreshments were served.

C.W.L. Hears Of Chest Drive

Work of the Community Chest was outlined by Mrs. J. J. O'Brien at the initial meeting of the fall season of the Victoria Senior Subdivision of the Catholic Women's League, held in the Parish Hall, on View Street. Volunteers were listed who would canvass a section of the city for this community collection.

Report on Girl Guide activities at St. Ann's Academy was given. Mrs. A. X. Rey will organize hospital visiting for the coming months. A Day of Reflection is planned for early October. Members united in Communion Sunday.

Details of the Family Rosary Crusade were given and Bishop James Hill spoke of the great privilege which Canada has been given, in leading the way in a giant crusade of prayer for peace in the homes and in the world.

A social hour was convened following the meeting by Mrs. D. Kenney, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Martin, Miss V. Babington, Mrs. H. Mantell, Mrs. M. Ormond, Mrs. S. Hunter and Mrs. C. Mulcahy. Special guests were Bishop Hill, Fathers D. Johnson and M. Costelloe and Mrs. Alex. Grant. Mrs. M. J. Haley and Mrs. Claire Turgeon presented a program of music.

Women's Auxiliary, St. Paul's Anglican Church, open fall session Tuesday, church service at 2... Britannia Lodge, No. 216, L.O.B.A., silver tea, home of Mrs. R. Cook, 1604 Ryan Street, Tuesday, from 2 till 4... Women's Guild to St. Mark's Church, Tuesday at 2.30.

Today's Recipe

Cheese Pineapple Pie

Ingredients: 1 cup milk; 2 egg yolks; 1 cup sugar; 2 tbsps. flour; 1 tsp. gelatin; 1/4 cup water; 2 cups crushed pineapple (1 No. 2 can) and 1 package cream cheese.

Method: Scald milk in top of double boiler and remove from heat. Beat yolks until light. Add sugar and flour. Mix thoroughly. Add milk very gradually, stirring until smooth. Return to top of double boiler and cook about eight minutes. Soak gelatin in one-half cup cold water. Add soaked gelatin to other ingredients, stirring until dissolved. Chill until thick enough to hold shape (about one and one-half hours). Fold in pineapple and cheese. Fill baked pastry shell and sprinkle chopped nut meats over top. Recipe makes filling for one nine-inch pie.

German Beauty Queen Praises U.S. Women

NEW YORK (UP)—Miss Germany of 1949 assured American girls today that they are far more attractive than German women.

Miss Ingeborg Marianne Loewenstein, 27, who flew here Sunday to work for an American airline, said that American women are "built better" because they are not so heavy-set.

The brown-haired fraulein, who is five feet six inches and weighs 122 pounds, was crowned queen last March over 20 finalists at Bad Homburg.

For cranberry pinwheels, cut crust off unsliced bread; slice thinly lengthwise, spread with cranberry jelly, roll pinwheel style around a whole peeled banana, chill.

Clubwomen's News

Mooseheart Day Bazaar—At a meeting of Victoria Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose, Mrs. K. Jasper was appointed convener of Mooseheart Day Bazaar to be held in October. Plans were discussed and members appointed to various stalls. Sick matron, M. Jones reported.

Hard Times Party—Esquimalt Community Club made plans at their last meeting for a "Hard Times Party," to be held tonight in the club hall, on Sturdee Street. Satisfactory reports were received from all committees and plans begun for a late fall bazaar and turkey drive. Mrs. R. McVie, president, was in the chair. Weekly card parties will be held in the homes of members with the first at the home of Mrs. A. Clough, 878 Esquimalt Road, Wednesday.

Your Baby And Mine

By

MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
WAIT TILL CHILD IS OLD ENOUGH FOR SCHOOL

The usual age at which children go to kindergarten is five years. If there is no kindergarten, the child should be six years in order to enter the first grade. At his age children have developed mentally to the point at which they can absorb the lessons of this grade. Since there is often a variation of six months to one year in the ages of first grade pupils it is obvious that the older ones have all the best of it. They learn so much more quickly.

Any child under five years of age belongs in a nursery school only and should not be expected to compete with children of valid school age.

Mrs. R. de F. poses this question. "I have a four-year-old son and I would like to get him into school in about six months. My problem is that he does not want to go to school. He carries on and says he is a baby and should not be in school (how right he is!) and I wonder if you can help me to prepare him for school when it comes?" "About a year ago I sent him to a nursery school because I was going into business. He went two days and that was the end. He cried and got so nervous he shook all over and would not eat. He used to wake up in the night crying that he did not want to go to school. It will be necessary to send him soon and I would like to get him ready for it."

It won't be necessary for another year, not then if there is no kindergarten. In that length of time the child will change greatly and will have arrived at a period of development when he should be eager for the new experiences of school.

This will happen, I feel sure, unless you keep him so close to you that he lacks the companionship of other children and the inspiration that will come from their excited anticipation of school days.

It is possible that he relates his unhappiness at enforced separation from you—while at business—with school and so has come to dislike it. If he has the normal experiences of an active child with friends, who visit him and he visits them, he will outgrow this abject dependence upon you and be ready for school when the time for it arrives.

"How the Child Develops," leaflet No. 40, contains information on what to teach the pre-school child. It may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Cultural Program—First meeting of Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority for fall season was held in Hotel Douglas Club room. Miss Elizabeth Prangnell, president, was in the chair, and the director, Mrs. Maud Hammond, presented a cultural program. All members will attend next city council meeting Oct. 4 at Norway House. Tickets for the Little Theatre Group presentation of "Moon for Mesland" on Sept. 23 are being sold by members of Zeta Chapter. Next meeting of Zeta Chapter will be held in the club room of the Douglas Hotel on Sept. 19 at 8.

To Paint Hall—Plans for the fall bazaar to be held Nov. 16 and a winter objective of funds to paint the outside of the hall and renew eaves-troughing were discussed by members of the Royal Oak Women's Institute at their meeting. Letters from institute members at Banstead, Surrey, Eng., were read, thanking the Royal Oak W.I. for blankets and other gifts sent. A collective exhibit of fancy work won the institute's first prize at the Saanich Fair. A display of arts and crafts and a loan exhibition of treasures, antiques and curios from various parts of the world, will be held in October. Several members will motor to Shawnigan to attend the district conference.

Victorians Assist With Haig Indian Craft Centre, Museum

Interior of the museum, built of cedar wood.

Pictured above in the doorway of the small Native Indian Craft Museum opened this summer at Haig, B.C., are, from left to right, Victoria Maxwell of Haig, Peter Morley, West Vancouver; Mrs. I. M. Maxwell, their former teacher; Donald Barber, and Neal Martin, both of Hope.

A small Native Indian Craft centre was opened this summer at Haig, B.C., as a result of enthusiastic work of local citizens assisted by Mrs. I. M. Maxwell, well-known welfare teacher in Nanaimo Indian Hospital, employed by the Indian Branch, Department of Mines and Resources, and several friends from Victoria, among them Cmdr. and Mrs. A. J. Tullis and Mrs. V. S. McLaughlin.

The museum, an interesting section of the craft centre, is a gift from Mrs. Mira A. Barber, donor also of the strip of land on which it stands. Fronting the Trans-Canada Highway at Haig, beyond the bridge at Hope, this location is destined for further development as a native craft centre, Mrs. Tullis reports.

The museum was officially opened July 31, by Native Indian Chief Peter Pete of Katze Reserve and Chief Peter Emery of Yale, with the support of local citizens and organizations.

The museum is expected to assume an important role at the time of the opening of the Hope-Princeton Highway in October, Mrs. Tullis says.

Mrs. V. S. McLaughlin of this city organized a weaving class for the Indian children, sponsored by the Hope Women's Institute. The class proved successful and immediately another was requested. This is scheduled to open in November and already a number of Indian women, skilled in crafts, are being enrolled.

Mrs. Maxwell, who has worked with Indian children for a number of years, is vice-president of Peanut sandwiches—mix equal amounts peanut butter and ketchup, spread on bread. Cut bread into half diagonally, toast lightly under broiler.

A good quality pickling vinegar is a "must" in pickle making. Soft pickles will result from vinegar that is too weak. Cider and blended vinegars have good flavor, but white spirit vinegar gives better color where light-colored foods such as onions, cauliflower or pears are used.

Met. Head To See 'Miss Canada' On Personal Visit

NEW YORK (CP)—Edward Johnson, Canadian-born general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Association, said he had an appointment to see Margaret Lynn Munn, Miss Canada of 1949, late today.

But he said the visit would be a personal, not a business one, and that Miss Munn, who competed last week in the Miss America contest at Atlantic City, N.J., had not been asked to audition for the Metropolitan.

Johnson said in an interview he had agreed to receive Miss Munn, who comes from North Vancouver, after being asked to do so by the Vancouver Daily Province in a long-distance telephone call.

"If we afterwards decide to hear her sing," he said, "it will not necessarily be for the Metropolitan but to give her advice as to what she should do with her voice."

VANCOUVER (CP)—For the third time in less than two months, some sections of Vancouver were left without power Sunday for 12 minutes when overloading of circuits caused a blowout at the Horne Payne substation. Lines were being switched over to Murrin substation when the mishap occurred.

British Imports Into U.S. Held By Tangled Red Tape

WASHINGTON (AP)—A shipment of English china reached the United States from Britain carefully packed in sets—cups, saucers, dinner plates, dessert dishes.
United States customs officers took one look and shook their heads. The shipment had to be unpacked and cups, saucers, plates, dessert dishes sorted into individual groups.
Duty had to be paid on the plates, on the cups, on the saucers, on the dessert dishes, as separate shipments. Then the importers had to reassemble the china as sets.

That is one example of problems faced by British exporters in selling to the United States market. It is one of the problems with which the Anglo-American-Canadian economic conference here will deal. A "working group" has been set up to prepare information on it for the conference.

"What we hope for," said one British commercial representative here, "is a new attitude on the part of the customs officials, who seem still to be suffering from a hangover from the Boston tea party."

A United States official who is trying to smooth the way for sales here by British and other European manufacturers said: "Customs people are working to simplify the procedures and eliminate some rulings that have little reason to be continued. They are receptive to suggestions for changes, and a sincere effort is being made to clear up the so-called nuisance problems."

INDIVIDUAL CHANGES

"One thing that is needed, however, is not general criticism

Tells Police He Was Attacked, Robbed By 2 Men

Clifford D. Callahan, Hut 28, Suite 4 at Gordon Head Camp, reported to police that he was knocked down and robbed of his wallet by two men shortly before midnight Saturday night on Cormorant Street.

Callahan said that while waiting for a bus, he was approached by two men who offered him a drink. The victim said he went with the pair for a short distance up Cormorant and that after having a drink he was struck in the mouth and knocked down.

Callahan said he lay on the pavement in a dazed condition for a time and then on checking found his wallet missing.

Victim of the robbery went to the police station to report the occurrence. He said he believed the men drove away in a car, but was not sure.

of the procedures, but specific instances of possible changes to simplify the methods."

Both the British and American agreed that tariffs themselves are not the principal problem. The American pointed out that reductions have been made in most tariffs—"they are by no means what they were prewar."

The British observer expressed the opinion they "are pretty high." He added, however, that he believes the rates are "designed to prevent entry into mass markets and confine imports to the luxury trade."

Claims Congress Needed To Solve Forest Problems

By FORBES RHUDE

Canadian Press Business Editor
MONTREAL (CP)—Canada should hold a forestry congress, in the opinion of the Canadian Forestry Association.

Why? Because her forests at present are being depleted.

Reasonable investment in forest management would not only halt the depletion, but enable her, in due course, to double the value of her forest products.

Says Dr. John S. Bates, chairman of the association's board:

"In 1946, the last year for which all figures are available, the federal government received more than $100,000,000 revenue from forest industries and workers, and put back $2,655,000.

"Provincial governments took more than $20,000,000 and put back about $11,000,000. Forest industries reinvested $16,500,000.

"According to studies, the reinvestment should be raised to $100,000,000 annually (against the present approximate $30,000,000).

BROCHURE ISSUED

The association has outlined the matter in a brochure, "The Case for Forestry in Canada," released today, and Dr. Bates comments:

"The recognition of fundamental responsibilities on the part of federal and provincial governments, the forest industries, hydro-electric companies, tourists and other forest users for the care and perpetuation of Canada's forests is vital to agreement on the raising of necessary funds."

The brochure says the earliest feasible date for a forestry congress would be September, 1950, but only if governments and other national bodies offer support promptly. It suggests Ottawa as the logical place and it thinks consideration might be given to calling similar congresses perhaps every fifth year. The last and only congress was held in 1906.

Good Roads Body Helps Make People Safety-Conscious

LAKE LOUISE, Alta. (CP)—The people of Canada are becoming increasingly safety-conscious through information distributed in the press, radio and motion pictures, the Canadian Good Roads Association was told today.

R. A. Stapells of Toronto, president of both the Ontario Safety League and the Canadian Automobile Association, told delegates at the annual convention that the association was one of the chief agencies promoting safe highways.

Safety education is aimed chiefly at youth, he said. The Ontario Safety League 20 years ago was a pioneer in safety education in schools and more than 7,000 illustrated lectures have been given to 2,500,000 pupils in the province.

Earlier, Hon. D. B. MacMillan, Alberta minister of public works, had opened the convention and extended to delegates the welcome of Alberta Lieutenant-Governor J. C. Bowen, who regretted his inability to attend.

R. M. Hardy, dean of engineering at the University of Alberta, described the findings of recent research on the compaction of soils, a new contribution to scientific road planning.

He said extensive experience in highway and earth dam construction and in wartime building of airfields had demonstrated the value of the process and had led increasingly to its inclusion in highway contract specifications.

In the past, it was difficult to predict the behavior of the sub-base and the sub-grade in a typical four-layer road, while design of the pavement and gravel base had reached a high degree of perfection.

But with soil compaction, which automatically assures high quality in sub-grades and base courses, this difficulty now was eliminated, he said.

Ailing B.C. Flier Wins Top Trophy

VANCOUVER (CP)—Donald Jacques, who should have been in hospital instead of in the air, is Canada's top amateur pilot.

The Vancouver flier won the Webster Flying Trophy at Windsor, Ont., Saturday, although suffering from tonsillitis, developed just two days before he left Vancouver for the east.

Jacques, a British Columbia Aero Club member, had won a provincial elimination competition in August, but the club did not want him to represent it at Windsor because of the seriousness of his illness.

Nevertheless, he was good enough to triumph over 10 contestants in the two-day competition.

A warm welcome and then a hospital bed are planned for Jacques' return.

Reports West Coast Hospital Short Of Trained Nurses

The Nootka Mission General Hospital on the west coast is seriously short of trained personnel, according to Lee Prest, who recently returned from the hospital.

Mr. Prest said student nurses, who assisted in hospital work during the summer months had now returned to school for further training, leaving the hospital with a serious shortage of nurses. He said the hospital staff was having a difficult time to keep up with the work. Mr. Prest assisted Dr. H. A. McLean to deliver the new hospital ship Bruce McLean to Esperanza. The 26-foot boat will take the place of the former Messenger II, which was wrecked at Tatchu Point, Vancouver Island, on Oct. 2, 1948, with the loss of one life.

What About CROSS-COUNTRY TRAVEL with a HILLMAN?

READ WHAT A RURAL MAILMAN HAS TO SAY ABOUT
HIS 12,323 MILES OF DRIVING ON COUNTRY ROADS

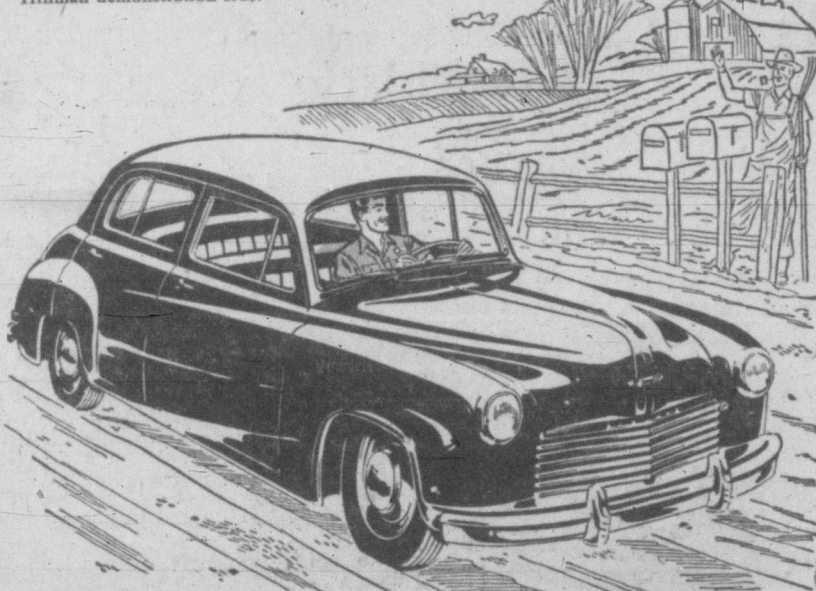

Mr. R. H. Forsyth, of Grimsby, Ont., whose letter praising the Hillman is one of many received from happy Hillman owners.

"I've driven my Hillman 12,323 miles since last December," writes Mr. Forsyth, "and this is just to tell you how pleased I am with it. Naturally, my job takes me over all kinds of roads in all kinds of weather, but I've never once been stuck! Some of the farm tracks in my territory are full of deep holes and ruts that would severely test the biggest cars made. But even under these conditions my Hillman is amazingly comfortable and holds the roads well! I'm getting really good gas mileage—about 37 miles per gallon with 230 stops at Rural Mail Boxes."

"I can speak very highly of my local Hillman dealer," adds Mr. Forsyth. "Everyone from boss to mechanics has given me first-class service."

For the convenience of Hillman owners, a permanent network of dealers provides parts and service from coast to coast in Canada and the U.S.A. Arrange now with your dealer for a Hillman demonstration ride!

SALT SPRING ISLAND—Mr. D. Winteringham

We're putting silver linings in some of your clouds!

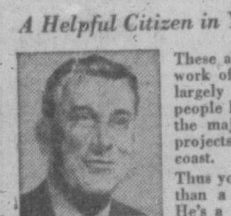

1. Are you forced to live with in-laws because of the housing shortage? Then you'll be glad to learn that things are looking brighter now—because...

life insurance dollars invested in housing projects to earn money for policyholders, are providing many new homes throughout the nation!

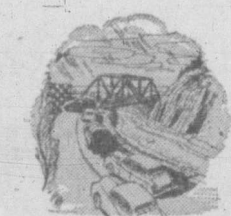

2. Are you a farmer, or farmer's wife, doing hard chores by hand? Electric power may soon save you time and energy with machines, provide convenient light and water because...

electric power lines are being brought into more rural areas. Invested life insurance dollars are helping to finance many of these labour-saving power developments for farmers.

A Helpful Citizen in Your Community

These aids to better living are founded on the work of the life insurance representative. It is largely because of his efforts that so many people buy life insurance and pay premiums—the major part of which is invested in vital projects that benefit Canadians from coast to coast. Thus your life insurance representative is more than a helpful adviser on financial security. He's a helpful citizen, too!

3. Is there a narrow bridge that chokes traffic and causes accidents in your locality? You may be surprised to find it replaced some day with... one of the many wide, safe bridges being built—thanks to life insurance dollars—in places where they're needed. Then watch the traffic flow!

4. Are waters polluted by raw sewage in your community? A new sewage filtration plant will solve this problem. And...

perhaps your city will soon have one of these disease-reducing plants which life insurance dollars are helping to build.

5. More silver linings will be provided by life insurance dollars invested in government bonds, which help build new roads, schools, harbours, recreation centres. So you can see that life insurance companies do not keep policyholders' money stored away in vaults! A large part of every premium dollar is invested in sound enterprises that help raise living standards for all!

Want Better Boat Service To Islands

GALIANO ISLAND—The Inter-Island Improvement Bureau will send a delegation to interview officials of the C.P.R. with regard to the curtailment of boat service to the gulf islands.

The delegation will seek to improve boat service between the gulf islands, Vancouver and Vancouver Island. Gulf Islands residents feel that it would be a profitable move to put a new and fast boat to serve the islands between Vancouver and Vancouver Island, to call at Sidney or Swartz Bay at least twice a week.

New Army Work Suit

In the very near future the Canadian Army may undergo a change in appearance. A new work suit, somewhat similar to one the Canadians used in Italy and, also similar to German Africa Corps' suit, has been designed for army men. The suit, which has been on test all summer by individuals all across the country, is called a bush suit. No decision has been reached yet on whether it will be adopted or not, but from the favorable test reports so far received, it seems likely it will be. This outfit, with its modern modifications, was designed in Ottawa by defence experts. (SNS Photo)

Leading Five C's Defeat Ex-R.A.F.; Century Witnessed

League-leading Five C's bolstered their hold on first place in the Victoria and District Cricket League Saturday by defeating Ex-R.A.F. 98 to 50. Second-place Incogs dropped their match to Albions 82 to 61, while in a third match Cowichan won from Oak Bay 153 for five wickets against 77 all out.

George Payne with 24 runs, and Tom McKeachie with 21, paced the Churchmen in their engagement with the Flyers. Moss with 28 was the only member of the Flyers to gain double figures as three of their members went down for ducks.

With Ted Oakman taking nine wickets for only 30 runs the Albions came up with a surprise win over Incogs. Owen Morgan with 18 and Reg Wenman with 14 were the only members of the Incogs to solve the bowling.

Lou Heppenstall's 101 not out featured the Cowichan victory over Oak Bay. Heppenstall went in as first bat and carried it without giving a chance. R. Scott was top scorer for Oak Bay with 32.

U.S. Tennis Girls Register 19th Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Britain's faintly flickering hope of regaining the Wightman Cup perished in just 22 minutes Saturday on the sun-drenched Merion Cricket Club court, and the prized women's international tennis trophy remained in the possession of the United States for the 19th straight year.

It took Miss Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., just 22 minutes to defeat Mrs. Betty Hilton 6-1, 6-3 in the "must" match as far as the British women were concerned.

The Americans had won the two singles and one doubles match Friday and needed only one victory out of the four matches Saturday to assure a best-of-seven edge in the competition.

British Golfers Seek Revenge In Ryder Cup Matches This Week

GANTON, Yorkshire, Eng. (AP)—A well-fed team of husky Americans will attempt to stage off the challenge of the revenge-minded British here Friday and Saturday for the Ryder Cup, symbol of world supremacy in professional golf.

The Americans are expected to win. But if they have an easy time it will come as a great surprise to these islands where golf was born.

Never at their best on United States courses, the Britons always have been tough at home. They've won only two of the seven Ryder Cup meetings but they've lost only once on this side of the Atlantic.

Their desire for revenge stems from an 11 to 0 trouncing at Portland, Ore., two years ago in the first renewal since the war. The gently rolling Ganton course will be a true test of skill for both teams. It produced the only two Britons ever to win the United States Open championship, Harry Vardon and Ted Ray.

Nestled in a valley nine miles from the North Sea, the course demands long, accurate drives and approach shots. This is the key to British hopes. Each of the 10 men available to the home side has a reputation as a straight driver.

"Good drives plus our knowledge of the harder greens should help our chances against the Americans' short game," one expert said.

Drysdale Posts High Score In Trophy Shoot At Heals

Putting on scores of 32-34-33 at the 200, 500 and 600-yard ranges, respectively, for a total of 99 out of a possible 105 bandsman Frank Drysdale of the Canadian Scottish Regiment led the first stage of the Weiler-Regan trophy match at Heals Range Saturday.

Sgt. A. E. Ashe and WO2 E. O. Roberts also had scores of 99 but posted a 32 and 31, respectively, at the longer range.

Drysdale's win earned him one of the engraved silver ash trays allotted to the winner of each stage and gave him a leg up on the trophy itself to be presented to the marksman with the highest aggregate score in the three stages.

LEADS TYROS

Fred Billock of the Fifth Regiment is leading in the race for the secretary's cup for the high tyro in the match with a 97 for the day's shooting.

High cadet score was turned in by Cadet P. K. Huus of the Fifth Regiment Rifle Association who carded a 96 in the match.

SEVENTH DODO

BALTIMORE (AP)—Henry Marcy, 60-year-old golfer, has carded his seventh hole-in-one. He sank it yesterday, using a No. 4 wood on the 162-yard first hole at Bonnie View course. He usually shoots in the middle 70s at the par-72 layout.

Yankees Move Three Games In Front

Win Two As Athletics Stop Boston Sox; Cards Gain On Brooklyn

NEW YORK (UP)—The magic number was 15 for the New York Yankees today and, translated into third grade arithmetic, that means they can polish up the centerfield flagpole for their 16th pennant in 28 years.

Three full games in front with but 19 to play, any combination of 15 Yankee victories or Boston Red Sox defeats will settle the issue.

It means the Yankees can play bad ball—their worst of the season and still win. It means that, allowing for the worst, the Yankees can drop more than half of their games and still make Boston win two out of every three of their remaining 15 to gain even a tie.

If New York wins only nine games and loses 10, then in order even to tie Boston will have to win 10 out of 15 or 11 out of 15 to take it all.

DETROIT TAKES THIRD

Hopeless as the Red Sox case may be, things look even worse for the other so-called contenders. Detroit, which took over third place from Cleveland yesterday, has 14 games left and would have to win 12 of them to overtake the Yankees at a nine out of 19 pace. Cleveland, with 17 to go, would have to win 13 of them to tie such a Yankee mark.

The Bombers, who have never been out of first place since opening day, made their position considerably more secure yesterday when they won two weird games, 20 to 5, and 2 to 1, from the miserable last-place Washington Senators while Boston was dropping 6 to 4 and 4 to 0 heartbreakers to the Philadelphia Athletics.

In the first game the Yankees put on a 12-run third inning in which they broke a major league record by drawing 11 walks. They got but four hits in the melee, one on a collision between outfielder Ed Stewart and shortstop Sam Dente which incapacitated both players.

In the 5½-inning second game, the Yankees led 2 to 0 when the Senators got successive doubles by Roberto Ortiz and Eddie Robinson.

Relief pitcher Joe Page was tagged for a single by Clyde Volmer and it looked as if Robinson could dog-trot home, but unexplainably coach Eddie Yost hit a pop into short left which barely eluded Phil Rizzuto. Again Robinson could have made it by turtle-back but after a slow start lost his footing. Page figured he couldn't stretch his luck any further so he bore down and ended the game with a double play.

HOME RUNS PAY OFF

The Athletics combined home runs and good pitching to deliver their two crushers against the Red Sox. Sam Chapman and Pete Suder hit homers to give Joe Coleman the runs he needed for the opening victory, and as Carl Scheib pitched a two-hit second game shutout, Chapman and Eddie Joost provided the home runs.

Detroit, putting on a gallant but probably futile stretch drive, took over third place by beating the White Sox, 1 to 0, at Chicago for its 10th straight victory and its 18th in the last 20. Singles by Hoot Evers, Connie Berry, and Bob Swift in the ninth gave Virgil Trucks the run he needed for his 17th win, a three-hitter.

The Browns knocked the once-proud world champion Indians into fourth place by beating them, 5 to 4, with a four-run outburst in the sixth touched off by Jack Graham's homer. Paul Lehner also hit a Brownie homer, as they ended a seven-game losing streak.

Relentless as ever, the St. Louis Cardinals again won 1½ games in front of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League race by defeating the Reds, 7 to 5, and 7 to 4. Stan Musial had three homers for the day—32 for the season. One came in the opener in which Marty Marion also delivered one. Howie Pollet, coasting along, won his 19th game in the nightcap after Jerry Staley picked up his ninth in relief in the opener.

The Dodgers won a costly victory from the Giants, 10 to 5, for their eighth decision in nine games, but they lost the services of shortstop Peeewe Reese for at least a week. Reese suffered contusions, but no break, in his left elbow when hit by a pitched ball. A six-run rally in the seventh was featured by Carl Furillo's grand slam homer. Carl Erskine won his seventh straight game in a relief role.

The Phils, also closing with a rush, strengthened their third-place position with 3 to 1 and 6 to 3 victories over the forlorn Braves at Boston. Lefty Ken Heintzelman pitched six-hit ball to win his 17th game in the opener and Russ Meyer won No. 43 in the afterpiece.

Yakima-Vancouver In W.I.L. Baseball Finals

The Yakima Bears, Western International League baseball champions, won a playoff series from Spokane last night by whipping the Indians 6 to 5 in a 10-inning contest. * Yakima now takes on Vancouver in a second best-of-five game series. Vancouver downed Wenatchee by the same count the Bears made against Spokane, three games to one.

1950 P.N.G.A. Set For Capilano Club

SEATTLE (AP)—The Pacific Northwest Golf Association Saturday selected the Capilano Golf Club of Vancouver for the 1950 tournament site.

John Campbell McLean of Capilano was elected president; Dr. John G. Corbett, Spokane, vice-president; Art Christopher, Vancouver, B.C., treasurer; Ken Black, Vancouver, B.C., secretary.

Left-fielder Edo Vanni started Yakima on the road to victory in the top of the tenth with a long triple. Vanni scored the winning run on second baseman Al Jacinto's outfield fly. Spokane won its lone game Friday.

Yakima hurler Teddy Savarese was snatched from tight spots time after time by outstanding defensive plays that included one triple play and five double plays.

Relief pitcher Gene Babbitt was credited with the win and Bill Werbowsky the loss. Spokane outbait the winners 15 to 11. The Indians had knotted the score at 5 to 5 in the ninth inning.

Larry Barton and Ken Richardson homered for Spokane.

WIN IN 11TH

Vancouver reached the finals Saturday night by defeating Wenatchee 8 to 7 on the strength of a three-run circuit blow by second baseman Len Tran in the 11th inning. Chiefs made a great bid to get back into the game in their half of the 11th when Clint Cameron, league batting champion, and Hal Rhyne hit successive home runs, but it wasn't enough.

Hunk Anderson received credit for the victory.

Yakima and Vancouver will now meet in a best-of-five series for the major share of the playoff pool.

Short scores follow:
Yakima 6 11 1
Spokane 5 15 0
Savarese, Babbitt (8) and Torrey; Bishop, Werbowsky (9) and Rossi.

R. H. E.
Vancouver 8 12 4
Wenatchee 7 11 1
Anderson (10) and Sheely; Frick, Johnson (5), McCullom (6) and Pesut, Winter (7).

One-Legged Jumper Clears 5 Ft. 11 In.

HAMBURG, Germany (UP)—Dr. Manfred Loos of Hamburg made a high jump of 5 feet 11 inches yesterday to finish second in a local sports meet.

The crowd roared its approval. What's so good about a 5-11 leap? Dr. Loos has only one leg.

Graziano Rules 7-5 Choice Over Fusari

NEW YORK (UP)—Rocky Graziano today was favored at 7 to 5 to beat Charley Fusari in their bout at the Polo Grounds Wednesday night.

Graziano, former middleweight champion, who is hoping for another crack at the title, will be making his first New York appearance since 1945. Rocky concluded his sparring sessions yesterday at his Summit, N.J., camp and weighed 158½ pounds. He expects to fight at 158. Fusari, a welterweight, ends his training today and expects to weigh 152 for the bout.

Calgary Stamps, Ottawa Show Class In Gridiron Victories

Calgary's fighting Stampede showed their championship quality Saturday by defeating Regina Roughriders 22 to 19 in a grimly-fought game on a snow-covered western field.

Struggling under the handicaps of an apparently irresistible Regina ground advance and an aerial attack that failed to click, the Dominion champions were swept back into their own ballfield and lagged 19 to 0 shortly before half-time.

Then Calgary started to roll. Their pass-throwing sharpened; their end-running improved. By the end of the third quarter they had run up three touchdowns. They won the game on a last-minute field goal by Vern Graham.

It was the most exciting of the week-end's six senior football contests. The other western game saw Annis Stukus' Edmonton Eskimos chalk up their first victory, 14 to 11, over Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

In the eastern Big Four loop, a smoothly-operating Ottawa machine ran roughshod over Toronto Argonauts, 19 to 1, to put the Roughriders in the clear atop the league. In the other game, Montreal Alouettes made use of ground power to overwhelm Hamilton Wildcats, 38 to 16. It was Alouettes' first win after losing two close decisions to Ottawa.

SARNIA EXTENDED

In the Ontario Rugby Football Union, results were as expected, though the unbeaten Sarnia Imperials had to pull off a last-minute touchdown before edging Hamilton Tigers, 13 to 11. In the other bracket, the second-place Windsor Rockets again smothered Toronto Beavers, beating them 25 to 0.

In the east it looked as if it were up to the Alouettes to halt the efficient Ottawa machine.

The expert Ottawans blazed the hopes of Toronto Argonauts that they could rescule the championship heights simply by importing a batch of United States stars. The Riders gave the Scullers a lesson in teamwork in marking up their third straight victory.

Howie (Touchdown) Turner scored two touchdowns and a single to account for 11 of Roughriders' 19 points.

In Hamilton it was just a case of Alouettes having too much power for the Wildcats. The Montrealers, paced by field general and quarterback Frank Flinchuk, rolled for six touchdowns, three in the last quarter.

Pacifics Retain Western Canada Softball Crown

WINNIPEG (CP)—Behind the brilliant two-hit pitching of Ann (Lefty) Korona, Vancouver Pacifics retained their western Canada girls' softball crown here Saturday night by defeating St. Vital Tigresses 6 to 0 in the fifth and final game before more than 4,000 fans.

The triumph gave the Pacifics the series three games to two. They won the opener 3 to 1, dropped the next two by identical 5 to 4 scores, and won the fourth 8 to 3.

After the game, Ken Yost of Winnipeg, first vice-president of the Western Canada Association, presented the Eller Trophy to Dot Saddleton, third baseman and captain of the Pacifics.

In contrast to her losing effort in the second game of the series when she was touched for eight hits, Korona was in complete control of the situation Saturday night, only walking two batters and at no time was more than one St. Vital runner on base in any one inning.

RITA BELL STARS

And as in previous games, Vancouver's punch came from the big bat of second baseman Rita Bell, who smashed out a two-run homer in the fifth—her third home run of the series. She also connected for a single in the second inning. Saddleton was the only other player to collect two hits. Noreen Stoddart, Gabby McLaren, Elaine Irving and Ella Bentley checked in with singles to round out the eight-hit attack.

Nanaimo Provincial Lacrosse Champions

NANAIMO—Nanaimo Native Sons Saturday night won the British Columbia senior B lacrosse championship with a one-sided, 18 to 6 triumph over Trail Golden Bears to take the best-of-three series in straight games.

Nanaimo won the first game Friday night, 18 to 12.

Nanaimo took the lead in first quarter with four goals without a reply. The island champs added four more goals in second frame to two for the interior champions giving up-landers 8 to 2 halftime bulge.

Winners were held to a 3 to 2 edge in third frame as score reached 11 to 4 but then turned on heat to pump home seven goals in final stanza.

BENNIE HIGH MAN

Buck Bennie led scoring parade with four goals with Don White and "Soup" Calverly netting three for runner-up honors.

Ken Featherstone paced the losers with a pair of goals.

St. Paul Captures Minor League Flag

MILWAUKEE (AP)—St. Paul Sunday won its first American Association pennant since 1938 by handing Milwaukee 6 to 3 and 12 to 7 setbacks in a twin bill.

The Saints had to win both games to maintain their half-game bulge over Indianapolis, since the Indians also won two yesterday, trimming Toledo 2 to 1 and 6 to 4.

Commercial Tenpin League will commence season's activities at Gibson's Bowladrome Tuesday night at 9 with four teams seeing action. Monarch Plumbing and Heating, Canadians, Kersey's and Shell Oil will open the season. Other clubs will see action Wednesday night.

Home Run In 13th Gives Erics Western Canada Softball Title

Calgary Erics won the western Canada men's senior A softball championship here Saturday night but it took the prairie champions 13 innings of the fifth and final game of the best-of-five series to turn the trick, 4 to 3.

The finale was all it was advertised—a pitching duel between Earl "Peewee" Gill of Erics and Ray Hough of Timber Service.

Gill won out when Jim Finney, Calgary first baseman, broke up the game in the first half of the 13th frame with a home run to deep left center field. It was Gill's third win of the series and Hough's first loss in three starts.

The series, which saw the clubs split the first four games—9 to 1 for Calgary, 12 to 1 for Victoria, 12 to 3 for Erics and 8 to 5 for the locals—wound up with by far the best game of the set as a Saturday night crowd of over 2,000 will testify.

The loggers got the jump in the final when they got to Gill for three hits and two runs in the third. It was the first time in the series that Victoria had scored the first run.

LOGGERS IN LEAD

A single by Jim Ireland, a fielder's choice and Hilton's infield single to short gave Timber Service the first tally when Ireland scored from second. Both plays were close. Mickey Smith followed with a single and Gill bobbled Okell's ground ball, allowing Hilton to score.

The score remained at 2 to 0 for the loggers in the eighth as Hough threw no-hit ball for five innings. Then with dramatic suddenness, Erics broke the goose-egg and took a 3 to 2 lead.

FATEFUL EIGHTH

The fateful play—and it was on a bad break—came in the top of the eighth inning.

Bill Alexander singled with one out and moved up on Bill Black's single. George Alexander then singled into centre field to score brother Bill. Hilton's throw to third took a bad hop over Jack Okell's head and bounded into the Victoria dugout allowing both Black and George Alexander to spike the plate.

Smith, first man up in the Victoria eighth, knotted the count at 3 to 3 when he tripled to right-centre and scored when Bill Abernathy juggled the ball. Erics threatened to win the game in the top of the ninth when they had runners on first and third with only one out, but Hough struck out Bill Alexander and got Black on a fly ball to end the threat.

Again in the 11th Erics had runners first and second and one out and once more Hough retired the next two men.

After Jim Finney had broken the tie with his second four-base clout of the series in the 13th, Smith picked up his third hit of the game with one out in the Victoria half of the stanza. Gambling all the way, Smith stole second but was left stranded when Okell popped up and Jack Battle struck out.

The western Canada championship trophy was presented to the Calgary squad, following the game, by Stu Fraser, president of the western Canada association.

Short score follows:

	R	H	E
Calgary Erics	4	10	3
Timber Service	3	7	3

Gill and W. Alexander; Hough and Wilson.

Coleman Defeats Crosby In Jasper Golf Finals

JASPER, Alta. (CP)—George Coleman of Miami, Okla., today holds the Totem Pole golf championship after downing his friend, Bing Crosby of Hollywood, 4 and 3 in a 36-hole final Saturday.

Exchanging quips with the large gallery, Crosby and Coleman braved a cold wind for tournament final. Crosby was shooting for a second trophy victory.

Coleman took an early lead in the first round with eagle at the second. He won the third but Crosby got one back at the fourth when Coleman got tangled up in the trees. The crooner squared the match at the sixth.

The next five holes were halved. Then Crosby went one up for the only time at the 12th when Coleman three-putted. Coleman squared it at the 13th and went two up at the 16th. They halved the 17th and at the 18th, Crosby ran down a tremendous 40-foot putt for a par to win the hole.

INCREASES LEAD

Coleman took charge in the final round with a birdie at the 19th. He went three up at the 21st with a good par. The next four holes were halved, but Bing came to life on the 26th and 27th with par golf to cut the deficit to one.

Coleman got his second eagle of the day at the long 28th when he knocked in a three after a terrific two-iron to the green. At the 13th hole, Coleman got back another and they halved the next two. Coleman took the next hole and the match.

Championship flight consolation: C. L. Johnson, La Jolla, beat Dave Kinnear, Vancouver (score unavailable).

Flight results included: Fourth flight, Dr. J. D. Calvert, Victoria, beat Gus Lyons, Vancouver. Fifth flight, T. O'Brien, Vancouver, beat Dr. W. G. Wilson, Victoria.

City Clubs Capture Island Boxla Honors

Victoria pee-wee and bantam lacrosse clubs Sunday won island championships in their respective divisions.

The pee-wees took their second straight triumph over Nanaimo by an 8 to 5 count and the bantams whipped Nanaimo 17 to 8, to also end their best-of-three series in straight games.

The pee-wee game was close throughout with the locals breaking a fourth-period goal 5 to 5 with three quick goals. Victoria led 3 to 2 at the first quarter, 4 to 3 at the half and 5 to 4 at the end of the third frame.

The bantams took a 2 to 1 margin in the first stanza, increased their lead to 7 to 4 at the half and then ran in seven markers in the third quarter for a 13 to 6 jubilee.

John Makowsky paced the scoring parade with seven goals and two assists. Philion scored five goals for runner-up honors.

Scores follow:

Nanaimo Pee-wees—Good (2), Dawson, Davis and White.

Victoria Pee-wees—Pellow, Caldwell (2), Atkinson (3), Watson, Mills.

Nanaimo Bantams—White (5), Geddes, Little and Wildress.

Victoria Bantams—Foster (3), Connor, Curran, Makowsky (7), Philion (5).

Ernie Spaulding In Feature Car Race Win; Close Calls

Seattle's Ernie Spaulding did it again at Langford Speedway big car race Saturday night.

The veteran driver made no mistake in winning the 30-lap main event a half a lap ahead of Victoria's No. 54 car pilot, Digger Caldwell.

The win boosted his season's total points further to the fore and when the races wind up around the end of the month there is little doubt that Ernie will be sitting pretty.

He was driving No. 9 car, as usual.

Starter Bob Wensley had a close call during the running of the feature when Vern Bruce's No. 36 wagon threw a wheel in front of the stands which missed old "Unc" by inches. The wheel bounced off a pole above Wensley's head, knocking down a large light fixture, which nearly got him a second time.

For close competition in the race the fans watched Jack

Spaulding in local car No. 1 and Eddie Kostenuk in the Victoria No. 22. Spaulding, brother of the winner, nosed out Kostenuk for third spot, passing him on the final lap.

FOURTH HEAT THRILLER

Best race of the night for thrills was the fourth heat race which saw Caldwell nose out Brownie Brown in the local No. 9 car for first. Digger and Brown battled it out neck and neck on the checker flag stretch, Caldwell coming from behind. He got the nod. Corky Thomas in No. 27 was third.

Thomas' Lucky Lady was not so lucky in warm-up laps before the races when it lost a wheel on the north turn.

Dave Cooper in No. 3 won the third heat race with Kostenuk second and Brown third.

Second heat race went to Jack Spaulding with Bung Eng in No. 7 second and Cooper third.

LEAD CHANGES

Ernie Spaulding and Vern Bruce made things hum in the first heat race, and first spot changed hands several times before the former zoomed into the lead for the finish. Jack Spaulding was third.

Ernie also won the Helmet Dash with Bruce second and Caldwell third.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—"We could have a code of our own. When a new skater comes in, we could easily knock her down or body block her, but we never do that until she learns how to take care of herself. We don't consider it good sportsmanship," explained Marjorie Claire Brashun.

Miss Brashun, known as "Midge" or "Toughie," probably is the best advertisement for the strange sport called "roller derby," which opens its "world series" Friday.

For the benefit of the ignorant (including this writer) it is explained that the objective of this kind of roller-skating race is to steal laps and to prevent the opposing side from doing likewise.

The game has been widely publicized with pictures of spills and fistfuffs. . . . Midge modestly deprecates her part in such goings-on. "You got out in front and somebody takes after you. The way to stop her is to knock her down," she explains modestly. "There really aren't so many fights. After all, the race is the thing. I don't call it a fight when you just stand there and argue; only when you throw punches."

Ordinarily the masculine and feminine racers compete separately but sometimes circumstances force them to mingle. Then, Toughie admits, it's customary for two girls to grab up on some poor guy and knock him on his ear.

But, heck, that doesn't only happen in roller derbies.

THEY CHEW TO RUN

Ruth Howich, California's feminine boss trainer, was asked recently the reason for her success.

"Well," Ruth explained, "I'd never think of feeding my horses anything I'd not eat myself." . . . Just then an unbelieving bystander asked: "Miss Ruth, please tell us how you enjoyed your first alfalfa breakfast."

Stengel, Dyer Prove Experts Can Be Wrong

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel of New York Yankees and Eddie Dyer of St. Louis Cardinals are leading candidates for baseball's "manager of the year" honor.

They have been the diamond magicians who have pulled their teams—both lowly regarded in the spring—into the lead in the pennant fights.

Writers polled during the training season picked the two Boston entries, the Red Sox and Braves, to meet in the 1949 world series. The opinion was that the Yankees would finish third and the Cardinals fourth in the American and National League races, respectively.

"Stengel is a clown, and without Joe DiMaggio starting the season the Yanks haven't got a chance," the "experts" predicted. "The Cards are a bunch of old men and will be troublesome but they will fold in the stretch."

Stengel, despite the absence of DiMaggio in the first 65 games, has had the Yanks in first place since opening day.

Bucking Treacherous Rapids On Mackenzie

By JIM McKEACHIE
Victoria Times Staff Reporter

TUKTOYAKTUK, N.W.T.—Having covered about 4,303 miles since she left Victoria Aug. 14, the Arctic Marine Limited Motorship Yellowknife Expeditor left this tiny northern settlement early today for her 1,200-mile trip up the Mackenzie River to Great Slave Lake.

During the week-long voyage she will have to navigate treacherous San Sault Rapids and other smaller river obstructions. Capt. Len McKinley and Jonas Lafferty, two of the best river pilots in the Mackenzie basin, are now aboard and say all possible speed will be made, since the river is falling rapidly.

Sunday the Expeditor discharged more than 6,000 gallons of diesel oil and transferred some spare parts to a barge she will up-river in order to lessen her draught to about five feet.

Though she took 26 days, four hours and 25 minutes on the trip from Victoria to Tuktoyaktuk, there were delays, and actual sailing time was 17 days, two hours, 15 minutes for an average speed of just over nine knots. On several days heavy seas forced speed to be reduced.

W. H. Wilson, Edmonton general manager of Yellowknife Transportation Company, parent firm of Arctic Marine Ltd., joined the ship here for the river trip.

Magician Visits Veterans' Hospital

Patients at the Veterans' Hospital here were treated to a special performance last week by Kramien, known professionally as "The Mad Magician."

Kramien, accompanied by four United States beauty queens, took time out from a local theatre to visit the hospital.

The magician confined most of his acts to sleight of hand and card magic as he could not move his full set of equipment to the hospital. Kramien announced that he would be back in the city next month and arrange a special full-scale show for the veterans.

C. W. Sutton, 3145 Alder Street, reported to city police Sunday that a headlight was stolen off his car while it was parked outside the Athletic Park Saturday night.

He said that a flashlight and a pair of sun glasses were also stolen from the glove compartment.

Langford Sisters Find Stratocruiser Out Of This World

Two sisters from Langford returned home Sunday morning after a quick jaunt to Spokane and had nothing but praise to tell about the new Boeing Stratocruiser on which they made the return hop from Spokane to Seattle.

The girls, Reta Rhinehart, 18, and sister June, 16, said the Stratocruiser was something out of this world, and described their trip as being like a beautiful dream.

Claimed to be the world's largest commercial airplane, the Stratocruiser makes daily trips from Seattle to New York, with stops at Spokane, Minneapolis and Chicago. The planes—there are eight of them—were put into service for the first time Sept. 1 by North West Air Lines, which uses them also on trans-Atlantic flights.

"There are two decks," Reta explained. "There is room for 75 passengers on the top deck and the lounge below has room for 14."

Luxury is the keynote of the plane's interior finish. The upholstery is brown with grey leather trim and the carpet is green.

"It's so cozy and warm, even though you ride two miles high," Reta exclaimed.

There is no discomfort to being so high as the plane is scientifically pressurized. There is not the popping of the ears that occurs in most planes even at lower altitudes.

The sisters left Victoria Thursday last and made the trip down on coach-class plane, which was nice, they said, but not near as luxurious as the Stratocruiser. It was the first air trip for both.

The trip was arranged by Western Canada Travel Service, where Reta works as a stenographer and counter clerk.

The first contest of the Victoria Model Airplane League's 12th Annual City Championships was held Sunday at Lansdowne Field. Although no new records were set many long flights were recorded and two gas-powered models were lost. One owned by Mr. M. Murray was found floating in Shoal Bay by Eric Clarke and David Ottingham, who returned it to Mr. Murray. The other missing aircraft was flown by Andy Rittich and has not been found. Anyone with information about it is asked to call E-5903.

In the championship race Bill Gelling leads the Juniors with four first places, while John Baily is second. In the senior division Dick Chisholm is first and Jim Pritchard is second. In both Junior and Senior the second place is held by last year's champion, Rod McLeod leads the open competition with M. Murray second.

Next Sunday, Sept. 18, the final and deciding contest will be held at Macdonald Park. Control line, stunt and special flying classes will be run off.

West Coast Blaze Under Control; 200 Acres Burned

A forest fire which had roared over 200 acres of slash on the west coast of Vancouver Island operation of the Zeballos Manning Lumber Company, was reported, brought under control today.

B.C. Forest Service officials here said that the fire had burned two cold-deck piles of cut timber. Estimates of the loss of timber were not immediately available.

Pumping equipment during the week-end was flown into the fire from Vancouver.

The fire was one of eight new blazes, mainly in old slash, which flared up during the week-end forest protection officers said. Majority of the new fires were on Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands.

Twenty-five acres of slash on the operation of the North West Bay Logging Co., near Parksville, burned, while 25 acres of old slash on Galiano Island also were consumed by another fire. A third fire in old slash on Salt Spring Island was also reported.

An acre fire, believed started by lightning last week, is burning at the 5,000-foot level in Strathcona Park. It is four miles up the south fork of the Elk River, officials said, and efforts are being made to get a crew into the fire.

Another small blaze in the Comox district on Cruickshanks River is also burning. Three men are being sent into it.

During the week-end three spot fires were recorded on the P.G.E. right-of-way, but these were extinguished. Six old fires are also burning. According to officials the hazard in the Vancouver district now is moderate to high.

The service also reported five fires burning in the Kamloops district with 33 firefighters employed. The hazard during the daytime is high there but the nights are cold.

Fort George forest district has 13 fires burning unattended with the hazard reduced to low to moderate. Prince Rupert district has a single fire burning and Nelson district has one fire, which is being attended by three men.

Sawmill Operator Sues Logger For Breach Of Contract

The $5,000 damage action of William R. Spicer, a Malahat sawmill proprietor, who is suing Gilbert McNutt, Wilson Road, Saanich, for breach of contract, opened in Supreme Court before Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane today.

Mr. Spicer, in his claim for damages against the logging operator, contends that McNutt failed to deliver sufficient logs to keep his sawmill in operation. He alleges that he built a mill in the Malahat district after reaching an agreement with McNutt that the latter would supply him with logs.

Henry Spicer, a son of the plaintiff, said when the mill began operating in July, 1948, the quality of the lumber was good and a sufficient supply was sent in from Sooke. However, he added, that as time went on the lumber got poorer and much of it was not suitable for cutting.

He said in November half the lumber McNutt sent to the mill for cutting was "conkey" and had to be set aside because it was unsuitable. He also said the mill ran out of logs for cutting because insufficient supplies were sent in by McNutt.

The plaintiff, Mr. Spicer, was not able to be present at today's hearing because of a fractured leg.

The case is continuing, Mr. McNutt, who denies the allegation, has also entered a counterclaim for unstated damages for breach of agreement.

Woodward Department Stores Ltd., Vancouver, today denied a rumor that the company is negotiating for purchase of the Scott Apartments building at Hillside Avenue and Douglas Street.

A rumor was circulating in Victoria last week that the apartment block would be bought by the firm and converted into a department store along the lines of those already operated by the company in other centres.

An official of the company in Vancouver today said there was no foundation for the rumor. The firm was not even negotiating to buy the building, he added.

Mrs. Robert Scott, 1587 York Place, owner of the apartment block, also denied that she was negotiating to sell the building. She said so far there was no intention to sell the Scott Apartments and it was the first time she had heard the rumor that negotiations were proceeding for the sale of the building.

Hope To Complete Gas Plant 2 Months

The B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. asked the city today for an early reply to an application for permission to install a propane gas plant on waterfront property adjoining its present gas plant.

The company said it hoped to start work on the addition immediately so that the plant could be in operation within two months to meet peak and standby requirements during the winter.

In the supply of gas to domestic and commercial users.

Proposed site of the plant is on the old Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Co. yard which, it is understood, recently was purchased by the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway.

City Council has been studying the application in so far as the erection of the plant may mean closing of street ends in the area in years to come.

Charge For Garbage Collection Drawing Ire From Apartments

The city's plan to increase revenue through charging apartment house dwellers for garbage collection is meeting with opposition.

S. H. Knott, 358 Moss Street, wrote the city today in criticism of "the high-handed attitude of the garbage collection department."

He claims the department has failed to give him written notice of a charge for garbage collection, and collectors have refused to take the garbage away until payments are made.

"The result is an unpleasant if not dangerous situation," Mr. Knott writes.

He says he does not approve of a charge on apartment dwellers for garbage collection when private home occupants are exempt.

"But I do not imagine for one moment that my views on the matter will change the set-up," he writes, continuing:

"I do, however, as a business man and a taxpayer, expect things to be done in a business-like manner and it does not seem to be quite the thing for an individual employee of the city to be going around ordering people to do so and so or else."

Fire Chiefs To Meet Here Next September

The 1950 convention of the Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs will be held in Victoria.

Officials of the association notified the city today that an invitation from Mayor Percy George to hold next year's meeting here was accepted at the recent convention of the association in Ottawa.

Approximately 500 delegates registered for the Ottawa party and it was planned to hold a similar convention in September, 1950.

Fire Chief Robert Brindle of Victoria attended the Ottawa meeting.

Red Feathers For Clock Hands Planned

Plans of Community Chest officials are culminated, large red feathers symbolic of the organization will take the place of hands on the big clock in the tower of the City Hall during the coming campaign for funds.

The city was asked today if this could be done. It was stated that all Victoria jewelers had agreed to change the hands of all the clocks outside their stores.

Plywood Campaign By J. J. Gibbons Ltd. Wins High Award

International recognition of advertising skill has again been given a British Columbia advertising agency in the 1949 Blue Book of Advertising, published by the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Included among the 50 most outstanding campaigns from North America in 1948 was one prepared by J. J. Gibbons Limited for Canadian Forest Products Limited, Pacific West and Plywood Division, New Westminster. This campaign is given a large part of the credit for the outstanding market success scored by P. V. Weldtex striated plywood from coast to coast in Canada.

"Ability to achieve fast, comprehensive market coverage is only one reason why daily newspapers were selected," states E. T. Wilson, who directed the campaign. "With a product distinguished in appearance from other plywoods, newspaper advertisements could illustrate as well as describe it. Distributor tie-ins could be effected for each market individually, and the campaign could be started with minimum production delays."

Listing in the Blue Book is a much-sought honor, as selections throughout North America are made on the basis of actual results from advertising from many thousands of entries. Only one other Canadian campaign, produced by an eastern Canadian agency, appeared in the Blue Book.

Last Shipment Of Cantaloupes Here

There is still a fair supply of peaches for preserving in the city a local wholesale agent announced today, but the supply will probably have dwindled considerably by the end of the week. Wholesalers stated that no more shipments of cantaloupes are expected this year so Victorians will probably have their last taste of them in restaurants and at home this week.

Shipment of Macintosh Red apples from the Okanagan district is expected in shortly along with the first shipment of the season of Okanagan Concord grapes.

A carload of Honduras grapefruit juice arrived here this morning and will go on sale later this week, it was learned.

Wholesalers stated that, all pickling items were in good supply and Okanagan Bartlett pears were also well-stocked here at present. Carload of California oranges was checked in Saturday and a shipment of Okanagan Damson plums is scheduled to arrive today.

Agents stated that prices for various fruits and vegetables were remaining stationary so far this week.

New Quarters For Essondale Veterans

Veteran patients at Essondale this month moved to their new quarters in an ultra-modern three-story building on the banks of the Fraser in Colony Farm. The recently-completed unit replaces the old Veterans' Wing, which will be put to other use by provincial mental hospital authorities.

Dr. T. G. Caunt is medical supervisor of the 290-bed veterans' centre, which is equipped throughout with the latest facilities and appointments. A major feature of the new building is its occupational therapy section and woodworking shop, under the supervision of T. F. Thomas, himself a veteran who learned his trade while convalescing at Shaughnessy Hospital in Vancouver. All male staff members at the unit are ex-servicemen of either World War I or II.

Hocking Nominated New Gyro President

Ross V. "Bud" Hocking, well-known city sportsman, has been nominated for the office of president of the Victoria Gyro Club, it is announced by club officials. If elected, Mr. Hocking will succeed Lloyd McLennan.

Nominations for other official posts on the local service club released by the Gyro election committee follows:

Philip Holmes, vice-president; William Hudson, secretary; Dennis Humphries, treasurer; Donald Woodhouse, Charles Powell, James Glassford, John Nation, Robert Taylor and William McCarter, directors for a two-year term.

Club's annual installation ceremonies will be held at Colwood Oct. 1.

Cadets Start College Year At Royal Roads Today

Seventy-seven navy-army-air force cadets today begin their college year at the Canadian Services College, Royal Roads.

Except for five entrants from Vancouver Island, all were due today at Esquimalt from the mainland on board the destroyer H.M.C.S. Crescent. They will be joined during the week by 67 cadets of the three services who have already completed a year's training at the college. The academic year will open Sept. 19, and will end April 30.

The two-year course at Royal Roads is the same as that offered during the first two years at the Royal Military College at Kingston, Ont., where army and air force cadet graduates from Royal Roads will complete their four-year course. Naval cadets, on graduation from Royal Roads and appointment as midshipmen, complete their training in ships of the Royal Navy and Royal Canadian Navy.

Courses offered during the two years are almost entirely academic and professional service training is confined to the summer months.

THREE SERVICE BASIS

Internal administration of the Canadian Services College has been placed on a three-service basis. Commandant is Group Capt. J. B. Millward, who served overseas in No. 6 Bomber Group and No. 8 Pathfinder Group.

Officer commanding the cadet wing and vice-commandant is Maj. R. M. Ross, and the senior naval officer is Instructor Capt. William Ogle, director of studies. New cadets, on arrival, are grouped into six flights which are, in turn, incorporated into three squadrons each under the command of a regular officer from a different service.

Overall business administration of Royal Roads will continue under the naval service.

Cadets from British Columbia joining Royal Roads are: Ronald L. Alexander, air force, Victoria; John N. Clark, army, Victoria; George B. Foreman, navy, Prince Rupert; Robert A. Gibbons, navy, Victoria; Robert St. G. Gray, navy, Duncan; Ronald F. Holland, air force, Kelowna; Rodrick M. Houston, navy, Enderby; John R. Jeffries, army, Vancouver; John D. Kyle, navy, Kelowna; Clark A. Lowry, army, Essondale; MacGregor MacIntosh, navy, Victoria; Robert C. Orme, navy, Chilliwack; Donald F. Pearson, air force, Vancouver; Arthur W. Rowse, navy, New Westminster; and Hugo O. Smecher, air force, Robson.

Immunization Week Observed In Canada

This week is being observed as Canada's seventh National Immunization Week sponsored by the Health League of Canada.

The designation of the week and the campaign accompanying it is to focus the attention of the public on the importance of immunization, the best method of preventing disease.

The provincial health department, which is supporting the campaign, emphasizes the necessity of obtaining periodic booster doses at recommended intervals to maintain a high level of immunity throughout life.

"George got laid up just as his vacation started, so I'm showing him travelogues!"

"Maybe you'd better get a recheck on that, Simpson! My wife's on that train, and she's never been on time anywhere in her life!"

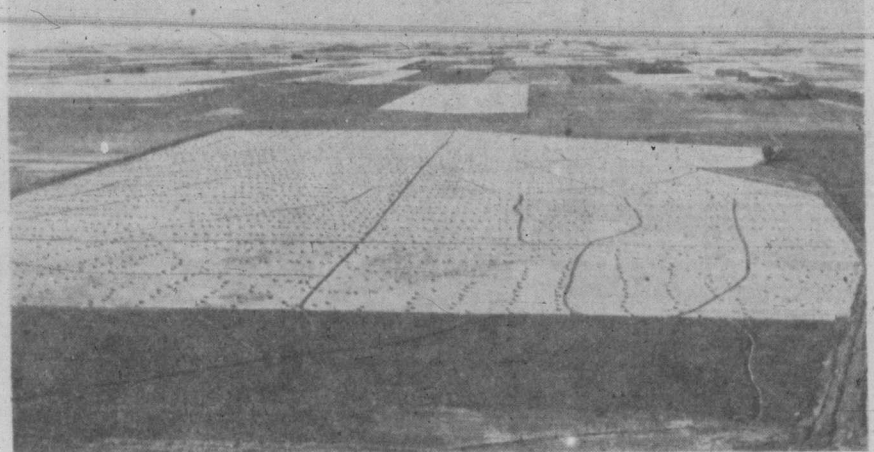

"Shootin'-- the Shoots"

I HOPE you've missed . . . this column's horse-play, 'cause to tell the truth . . . I've been away. On a buying trip . . . the mixed with leisure, as the whole family . . . went together. So that's the reason I haven't writ, it's nice work. . . if you get enuff of it. Once or twice while out of town, I thot I'd jot . . . a few lines down. Coz everywhere that we did go, good copy seemed . . . to fairly flow. Which proved to me . . . I'm in a rut, & as a poet . . . anything but. I need to move often . . . get outa this place, or I never WILL . . . get to that base. One day ferinstance . . . we went to see, that great exhibition . . . the P.N.E. We've an exhibition down at our store, the most beautiful suites pass thru our door. From an acre of space you make your choice, a lovely new-cemer is in turquoise. We've a combination that's really nice, combining beauty at a warehouse price. Informal credit to further beguile, plus free delivery on Vancouveris! Now our daughters have, seldom . . . left our shore, so never had seen . . . such sights before. And we'd no sooner . . . got inside, Trudie sed, "Gee-Golly . . . Lookit that ride." So we all got in . . . one of those brutes, went away up high . . . to "Shoot the Shoots." The G.F. & the eldest sat in front, in this flat-bottomed . . . galloping punt. We reversed on rollers high in the air; I assumed a look . . . of devil-may-care. But braced myself . . . held Trudie tight, as we started down . . . on this meteorite. The gals in front . . . gripped the rail, both I knew . . . a little pale. Faster still faster . . . we fairly flew, then with a SMACK . . . we hit the blue. Most of the spray . . . was off the bow shed, Trudie in my lap . . . had buried her head. "Golly-Gosh Daddy . . . let's do it again," so we stayed aboard . . . this hydro-plane. Tho minus ONE passenger, "she" thot "it too rough, the G.F. sed . . . she'd HAD ENUFF." "Now this time Trudie . . . DON'T bury your head, it's much more fun . . . to look ahead." YOU should look ahead, YOUR winter arrange, & come & see this Quaker Range, 25% it saves on your oil, no wood or ashes or back-breaking toil. There is no soot to lodge on your shelf, the food thing breathes . . . and cleans itself. To see it in action . . . will make you blink, & remember, it's later . . . than you think. I sat in the middle . . . right in the bow, the SMACK this time . . . was different somehow. 'Cause as we crouched . . . all fists clenched, we all 3 . . . got simply drenched. Not just sprayed . . . or little damp, so office again . . . we climbed that ramp. We were really into the thing right now, permanent passengers on that scow. At 2 bits a piece it was mounting up, 'twould be nice I thot . . . to own this set-up. Then once again we slithered down, there was a sailor aboard . . . acting the clown. The G.F. was hollering . . . you've HAD enuff" but we were made of sterner stuff. "How MUCH," I sed, to the man's delight, "if I buy this barge . . . cash outright." "C'mon," sed our eldest, a trifle sad, "I KNOW Mummies . . . good & mad." "Ah . . . just one more," Trudie urged, but we dragged her out . . . again we merged. Their hair was a mess . . . poker straight, my shirt was soaking . . . saturate: "Jimmie," sed Trudie, with a loudish squeal, "just LOOKIT the height . . . of that Ferris Wheel." "Let's go," I replied, mother glared & perplexed, so tune in 2 morrow . . . for WHAT HAPPENED NEXT.

Wheel Of Conrad's Otago Going To Maritime Museum

MONTREAL—A unique sentimental symbol of the sea has been taken to England in the care of Christopher Morley and Capt. James Quayle of the Cunard White Star liner Media.

In memory of the death of Joseph Conrad, 25 years ago, the old teak steering wheel of Conrad's first command, the barque Otago, greatest love of the seaman-writer's maritime career, has been returned to the land where it was built in 1869.

Conrad did not even know, in his later years, that any relic of the Otago still existed. He had written many famous stories about her: "The Shadow Line," "The Secret Sharer," "A Smile of Fortune"—but he thought she had "perished from this earth." Two obstinate lovers of Conrad, and of ships, discovered differently.

Christopher Morley and William Stanley Hall, a writer and bookseller, learned by chance that the hulk of the old Otago was still in existence on the beach of a ship's graveyard up the River Derwent in Tasmania, south of Australia.

DISCOVERED IN TASMANIA

In 1946, Mr. Hall visited Tasmania and located the hulk of the Otago, now not much more than an iron shell, but with one mast still standing. The wheel, however, had been unshipped and taken below by a watchman who looks after "The Wrecks," as this last resting-place of old vessels is known locally in Hobart. In the after cabin, so vividly described by Conrad in stories based on his experiences in Otago, among rubbish and wreckage, old rotted canvas and abandoned gear, was the wheel itself, called by Conrad in "The Shadow Line," when Otago lay hauled by calms and a fever-struck crew, "a symbol of mankind's claim to direct its own fate."

The wheel was shipped to New York in 1947. Christopher Morley got it uncanted at an East Side warehouse and remembers rolling it along pavement in search of a taxicab. Most cabs didn't like the look of it; a full-size ship's wheel, about four-and-a-half feet in diameter and weighing perhaps 80 pounds, is not easy to handle. Mr. Morley and a companion rolled it into a Second Avenue saloon for refreshment. The place proved to be a resort of sailors; several were at the bar. They were much interested when the wheel came rolling in, and one exclaimed: "Hi, skipper, what course you steering?"

It was delivered on the Liverpool landing stage to Sir David Bone, senior surviving seaman friend of Joseph Conrad and himself equally admired as shipmaster and author of deep-sea books. It was Captain Bone, then master of the Anchor liner Tuscania, who brought Conrad for his first and only visit to the United States in 1923.

Sir David in turn will hand it over to the Honorable Company of Master Mariners, who have a maritime museum of their own in a ship moored off Temple Stairs in the Thames. On the famous London river, of which Conrad wrote so often, this strangely intimate souvenir of a ship and a man should find happy mooring.

The DOCTOR Says:

CHILD'S BAD BEHAVIOUR MAY BE DUE TO PHYSICAL CONDITION

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Many children who are considered "bad" are really suffering only from some physical disorder or nervous maladjustment. The fault is often—but not always—with the physical condition or the home or school surroundings rather than with the wilful misbehavior of the youngster.

Physical causes may be responsible for "unsocial behavior." A youngster may have a severe anemia resulting in lack of pep and inability to take part in the usual athletic and social activities. A condition called St. Vitus Dance, or chorea, which is closely related to rheumatic fever, is a fairly common cause of nervousness. And there are other diseases which can lead to undesirable behavior in a child.

MENTAL STRAIN

Mental or nervous strains from the environment are a frequent cause of bad behavior. Lack of sympathy and understanding, or quarreling between the parents produces a feeling of insecurity in almost all children. Too much sympathy or "mothering" may cause just as much trouble as neglect and lack of affection. Overindulgence can produce nervousness, and maladjustment as readily as can neglect.

Probably affection and interest on the part of the parents toward the child is more important to good behavior than a large number of mistakes in other parent-child relationships. The physical and mental causes for nervousness and maladjustment in children are closely connected. In spite of intelligent efforts on the part of the parents, not all children will turn out well. Nevertheless, there are many children who get into difficulties who would turn out better if their parents helped them more.

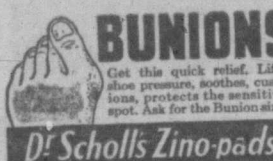

QUESTION: What makes the heart feel as though it were jumping or turning over?

Answer: The most likely explanation is that the heart has some extra beats which are known medically as extra systoles. This is not ordinarily a dangerous condition but if it occurs frequently it would be wise to have the heart examined.

Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads

Ensures Its Members Against Hardships

An executive of one of the world's most unusual church welfare organizations arrived in Victoria Tuesday.

He is Elder Marion G. Romney, one of the general authorities of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon), and assistant manager of the Church Welfare Plan, which provides aid to the aged, widows, and permanent employment for the jobless.

The welfare plan will provide any of the church members facing economic difficulties with food, clothing and drugs.

The plan was organized by the Mormons, who donate every month about 16 hours each year to their community project. The members donate either money or goods, the latter being stored and distributed among the needy when the necessity arises.

Mr. Romney said the church was attempting to develop an economy which would insure all its members against economic hardship, including a major depression.

He disclosed that the welfare plan had now grain elevators, canning plants, shoe factories, clothing plants and farms on which wheat and citrus fruits were grown.

A member who has suffered the loss of his home and household goods due to fire, he said, can be supplied with all the necessities of life, including furniture, bed clothing and drugs.

He explained that the church's grain elevators were built in the spare time of tradesmen who belonged to the church. In these, wheat was stored for use in emergency.

Mr. Romney said the welfare plan had sent thousands of tons of food to its members in Europe since the war ended.

"If a man is unemployed," he added, "he can be put to work on a farm or factory and in return he will get paid and receive the merchandise he needs."

Mr. Romney added that if a depression occurred again, none of the members would have to go on relief.

Dear Sirs:

My husband has been a sufferer of Arthritis for about 10 years and about 18 months ago started to take Lantigen. He has taken six bottles and has found great relief. The pain was mostly in his feet and he walked very badly, but now he walks much better and the pain is almost gone from his feet, which shows Lantigen helped a lot.

He has slept better since taking LANTIGEN.

60 YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

1889 1949

Fifty years ago, fruits and vegetables out of season could only be provided through the skill and industry of the housewife. A goodly store of dried apples and canned fruit was laid away during the summer and fall. Today commercial canneries and quick freezing plants help to make housekeeping easier. In these plants, equipment and utensils which come in contact with food are usually made of pure Nickel or Nickel Alloys. Such metals are rust-proof, sanitary, durable and extremely easy to keep clean. They safeguard the flavor and color of foods, because they resist the corrosive action of food acids.

Nickel Brings Dollars to Canada

Since more than ninety per cent of the Nickel produced in Canada is sold to the United States and other countries, it brings a constant flow of dollars back to Canada. In fact, Canada's Nickel industry is one of our chief sources of U.S. dollars so essential at the present time to maintain our foreign trade and make available products not produced in this country.

These dollars help pay the wages of the 14,000 Nickel employees, and help provide the dollars which make it possible to pay millions in freight to Canadian railways; to buy timber, steel, coal, machinery and supplies amounting to many millions each year.

These millions, flowing into all industries through the length and breadth of Canada, help create jobs for Canadians.

BIDS SEVEN N.T. ON SOUND REASONING

Mrs. M. D. Rothschild of New York City is known to everybody in tournament bridge as "Mother Rothschild." I believe she probably plays more duplicate bridge than any other person in the country.

Mrs. Rothschild likes to bid. You can rest assured that if there is a slam in a set of boards during the evening, she will bid it.

However, she did use very sound reasoning when she bid seven no trump on today's hand.

Opening—♦ J

Mrs. Rothschild said, "When my partner opened with a two-bid, he told me he had ten tricks in his own hand. Well, if he could take ten, and I had the ace, king and queen of clubs, that counted up to 13. Also, when he bid hearts and I held four to the ten, I knew it would help to get that suit to break. Of course, I protected myself by bidding four no trump, to make sure he had three aces." Mrs. Rothschild continued, "Why wait? I bid seven no trump."

The hand will produce 16 tricks—five spades, four hearts, one diamond and six clubs.

Stars Have Party After Making Film

When the stars and featured players in a motion picture get together after the final scene is shot and give an impromptu "thank you" party for the director and producer, some sort of a precedent for Hollywood is set.

Well, that's exactly what happened to Director Joseph L. Mankiewicz and Producer Sol Siegal when they "wrapped up," as they say in studio parlance, "The House of Strangers," which comes to the Capitol Theatre today.

'The Red Shoes' Now At Plaza

"The Red Shoes" now being shown at the Plaza Theatre contains the first full-length English ballet written specially for the screen.

Choreography is by Australian-born Robert Helpmann, brilliant premier danseur and choreographer of the Sadlers Wells Company. The ballet is based on the Hans Andersen fairy tale of the young girl who cannot stop thinking about her red dancing shoes.

The three principal characters are Moira Shearer as the girl, Leonide Massine as the Shoe-maker, and Robert Helpmann as the Lover.

New Musical Opens On Royal Screen

A silent movie, vintage of 1924, furnished one of the nostalgic highlights for "You're My Everything," the Twentieth Century-Fox Technicolor musical, which opens today at the Royal theatre.

To give more realism to this old-time movie Producer Lamar Trotti and Director Walter Lang rounded up many colorful actors, whose names were by-words with movie fans of the twenties.

New Atlas Film Abounds In Drama

Republic's "Wake Of The Red Witch," which opened today at the Atlas Theatre, is a spell-binding screen version of a great best-selling novel.

Garland Roark's book was a Literary Guild selection and sold a million copies. A story with the movement and freedom, sweep and stirring excitement of "Wake Of The Red Witch" was tailor-made for the screen.

ODEON THEATRE

Burt Lancaster, in his first production venture, introduces a "new" Joan Fontaine to the screen. The film, "The Unafraid," is currently playing at the Odeon Theatre, and co-stars Lancaster and Miss Fontaine with Robert Newton.

Completes Joint Trip With U.S. Navy Ships

H.M.C.S. Cedarwood, experimental vessel attached to the Pacific Naval Laboratory in Esquimalt, will return to her base here Tuesday following a combined cruise with specially-equipped U.S. Navy vessels in waters off the Aleutian Islands. Cedarwood, which sailed from Esquimalt June 29, made the joint cruise with the U.S. ships to test oceanographic conditions in northern latitudes.

Co-operating in the investigations were staff members of the U.S. Navy Electronics Laboratory, San Diego, the Pacific Oceanographic Group of the Joint Oceanographic Committee of Canada and the Defence Research Pacific Naval Laboratory.

Chief scientist of the expedition was Dr. Waldo K. Lyon of the applied research division of the U.S. Navy Electronics Laboratory. Top scientist of the Canadian group was Dr. John P. Tully, chief oceanographer of the Pacific Oceanographic group.

Two surface ships and one submarine took part in the cruise. Cedarwood is based at Esquimalt and commanded by Lt.-Cmdr. J. P. Wolfenden.

R.C.N. (R). The second, the U.S.S. EPCE(R)-857, is an experimental seagoing laboratory under the command of Lt. D. S. McMillan, U.S.N.

The submarine, also a seagoing, experimental laboratory, the U.S.S. Baya, is commanded by Cmdr. J. D. Mason, U.S.N.

Both American ships are based at San Diego and attached to the U.S. Navy Electronics Laboratory. Scientists of the expedition said waters in which the cruise was made were found to be ideally suited for the full-scale testing of underwater sound equipment.

Stable oceanographic conditions in these waters, they said, virtually duplicated controlled conditions of a shore laboratory with the complete absence of man-made interference of any type.

The U.S. section of the expedition left San Diego on July 5 and was joined at sea by H.M.C.S. Cedarwood. The actual scientific portions of the cruise began July 22 and ended Aug. 5. U.S.S. Baya returned to San Diego today. The EPCE(R)-857 is scheduled to make port about Sept. 23.

Bogus Bills Reaching Vancouver Island Points

At least four of the deluge of counterfeit $10 bills that flooded Vancouver last week, have found their way to Vancouver Island, it was learned this afternoon from B.C. Provincial Police headquarters here.

According to Insp. Richard D. Harvey of the criminal investigation branch there is no indication that there has been any effort to pass the bogus bills on the island.

One of the bills showed up in the total day's take at the Wing-on Market at Duncan. Another was presented at the Overwater Ltd. at Ladysmith. Insp. Harvey said that the owners had no idea who presented the bills.

In both cases, the bills were taken during the course of heavy turnover of business.

Another counterfeit bill has turned up in a Campbell River store.

The C.I.B. official said that a bogus bill "was passed on a gas station attendant at Kamloops City last week by two men in a car."

To date only one bill has been discovered in Greater Victoria. This was the one turned over to Esquimalt police by a sailor. It had been brought from Vancouver by another sailor.

In the meantime, banks and big business firms here handling

Killer And Guns

Robert Unruh, 28-year-old veteran, who suddenly went berserk and staged a shooting spree in Camden, N.J., in which he killed 13 persons and seriously wounded three others, is shown in one of several photographs he had neatly stacked in a wooden box in his room. Here he is cleaning one of his many rifles he started to collect while in the army. (S.N.S. Photo)

Separate Trials For 2 Suspects In Vancouver Slaying

VANCOUVER (CP)—Separate trials today were granted two men charged with murder.

The men, Walter Prestyko, 33, and William J. Woropce, 37, are charged with the murder of Michael Geluch, killed in his home here June 12.

Badly decomposed bodies of Geluch, a former railway sectionman, and his wife, Marie, were found in their new bungalow after neighbors had reported their non-appearance around the house. They had been dead several days.

At the opening of the trial in the Assize Court today Crown Prosecutor Angelo Branca told Mr. Justice Coody that evidence would be introduced to show that a pair of trousers found at Woropce's house resembled a pair Mrs. Geluch had bought for her husband in May.

The trial is continuing.

Cripps Convinced Agreement Blocks Drain On Reserves

WASHINGTON (AP)—Britain, Canada and the United States today announced a 10-point program for dealing with Britain's immediate dollar crisis.

Its aim, too, is to make Britain self-supporting in long-range dollar earnings.

The program was announced at a joint press conference held at the conclusion of the week-long three-power talks here.

Sir Stafford Cripps, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, said he is convinced the agreement will block any further dangerous drains on Britain's gold and dollar reserves.

The 10 points supplement Britain's own belt-tightening measures. They provide, first of all, for a series of trade concessions and other steps by Canada and the United States.

Immediate points include:

Greater freedom for Britain to spend its Marshall Plan dollars.

Modifications in stockpiling of rubber and tin and an increased opportunity for use in the United States of raw rubber instead of synthetic rubber made in the United States.

All such measures either will enable Britain to earn more dollars by selling more goods to the United States and Canada, or will help Britain conserve the dollars she has.

Substantial Advance Made

Treasury Secretary John Snyder, chief United States negotiator at the week-end three-power talks, said that he felt the talks had made a "substantial advance in approaching a solution" of Britain's dollar shortage problem.

Here are the 10 points as announced in a 2,500-word communique from the finance and foreign policy chiefs of the three countries:

1. Overseas Investments—All three countries will try to stimulate investments of American private capital abroad and to promote new loan applications for development projects in foreign countries to the World Bank and the U.S. Import Bank.

2. Commodity Arrangements and Stockpiling—Canada is "prepared to take steps to increase reserve stocks of tin and rubber" and the United States will "review its stockpiling program" for the same purpose and meanwhile open the field for increased sales of natural rubber. Sir Stafford expects immediate help from this step.

3. Limitations on Items which may be financed with Marshall Plan funds—The United States recognized that Britain must "finance with its share of E.C.A. funds a wider range of dollar expenditures" than previously. The E.C.A. will probably have an announcement tomorrow on how this point will work.

Paul Hoffman, E.C.A. administrator, indicated that the "wider range of dollar expenditures" would mean that Britain would be given some Marshall Plan dollars with which to buy wheat in Canada, as well as other products from the Dominion.

4. Customs procedure—both the United States and Canada promise to review their administrative operation of customs to facilitate the flow of goods into their countries. The United States government is developing proposals for legislation by Congress along this line.

5. Tariff Policy—The communiqué stated "it was noted that high tariffs were clearly inconsistent with the position of creditor countries." The United States reaffirmed its policy of trying to negotiate further trade agreements through which additional cuts in its tariff rates can be made.

6. Liberalization of intra-European trade and payments—Britain put forward in the conference a plan for facilitating trade among western-European countries and asked an easing of present Anglo-American restrictions barring British discrimination against American goods.

On this point, the United States and Canada agreed that British import regulations "would be the subject of continuing review" by

C.I.O. Accepts Truce For Steel

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The C.I.O. United Steelworkers today accepted President Truman's request for a 11-day extension of the steel strike truce and the recommendations of the Presidential fact-finding board for settlement of the steel wage dispute.

Injured In Collapse Of Roof On P.O. Site

A workman in demolition of buildings on the Government Street site of the new post office and federal building was injured this afternoon when a section of roof collapsed under him.

Suffering from shoulder, arm and leg injuries is Walter Bone, 31, of 606 Yates Street who was rushed to Royal Jubilee Hospital by police ambulance.

First aid was given the workman by Constable William Andrews and patrol driver Alex Nichol.
